Had productive meeting with Jaishankar; discussed Covid-19, India-China: Blinken

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Washington, May 29

US SECRETARY OF State Antony Blinken has said that he had a productive meeting with visiting external affairs minister S Jaishankar during which they discussed the bilateral ties, Covid-19 relief efforts, India-China border situation and Afghanistan and vowed to work together to address areas of shared concern.

US secretary of state Antony Blinken and Indian external affairs minister S Jaishankar in Washington, DC, US

Jaishankar, the first Indian Cabinet minister to visit the US since Joe Biden became President on January 20, met Blinken on Friday.

"Blinken welcomed Jaishankar to the Department of State, where he reaffirmed the US administration's commitment to deepening the US-India Comprehensive Global Strategic Partnership," State Department spokesperson Ned Price said after the meeting.

"Productive discussion today with Dr S Jaishankar on regional security and economic priorities to include US Covid-19 relief efforts, India-China border situation, and our support for Afghanistan," Blinken said. "As friends, we will work together to address these areas of shared concern," Blinken said in a tweet, hours after the meeting with Jaishankar at the Foggy Bottom headquarters of the State Department.

Quad fills 'very important gap' that has emerged in contemporary times: Jaishankar

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Washington, May 29

THE INFORMAL QUAD grouping in the strategically vital Indo-Pacific region comprising Australia, India, Japan and the US fills a "very important gap" that has emerged in contemporary times and New Delhi has clarity on its membership in it, external affairs minister S Jaishankar has said.

The Quad aims at strengthening a rules-based order in the Indo-Pacific amidst China's aggressive actions in the region. "Quad today fills a very important gap that has emerged in contemporary times, where there are global or regional requirements, which cannot be filled by a single country. It cannot even be filled by one bilateral relationship, and which is not being addressed at the multilateral level," he told a group of Indian journalists as he concluded most of his meetings here on Friday.

Amazon pressed for racial equity review after strong vote tally

REUTERS
May 29

AMAZON.COM INC should review how it is addressing racial justice and equity after a shareholder proposal on the topic won strong backing, New York state's top pension official said on Friday.

A filing on Friday showed 44% of votes cast supported a call for a review of the company's impact on equity, diversity and other areas proposed by New York State Comptroller Thomas DiNapoli at Amazon's annual meeting on May 26, a high total for such a measure.

DiNapoli said the measure would have received a majority but for the 14% stake held by CEO Jeff Bezos, a sign of investor dissatisfaction at the leading online retailer.

"Shareholders sent a loud message to Amazon that they want the company to do more to address racial diversity, equity and inclusion. It's time for Amazon to listen to its investors," DiNapoli said in an emailed statement.

Amazon had previously said the measure did not win a majority but it did not give the voting breakdown.

An Amazon representative said the company has "initiated numerous programmes to assess and address racial justice considerations across key aspects of our operations that we believe fully address the objectives of this proposal."

The call for the racial equity audit received the highest level of support among 11 shareholder proposals at Wednesday's meeting.

Another, calling for Amazon to consider adding an hourly worker to its board of directors received support from 17% of votes cast, the filing showed.

Proposals with such low levels of support are rarely adopted, although the figure was about twice what similar calls for workers-on-boards have received at other companies in recent years.

The measure, which received a rare endorsement from Institutional Shareholder Services, was closely watched at the annual meeting after a union organizing effort at the company failed in April.

NOTICE FOR THE ATTENTION OF EQUITY SHAREHOLDERS OF THE COMPANY

Transfer of Equity Shares of the Company to Investor Education and Protection Fund (IEPF) Authority
Notice is hereby given pursuant to Section 124 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') and Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority (Accounting, Audit, Transfer and Refund) Rules, 2016 as amended from time to time read with the relevant circulars and amendments thereto ('the Rules').

The Rules, inter-alia, provides that the dividend which has remained unpaid or unclaimed for a period of 7 (seven) years will be transferred to the bank account of IEPF Authority as also the shares in respect of which such dividend has remained unpaid or unclaimed for a period of 7 (seven) consecutive years or more, are to be transferred to the demat account of the IEPF Authority.

In terms of the said Rules, Final dividend declared by D. B. Corp Limited ('the Company') for the Financial Year 2013-14 which has remained unpaid or unclaimed for a period of 7 (seven) years will be credited to the bank account of IEPF Authority on the due date. Also, underlying shares on which such dividend has remained unpaid or unclaimed for 7 (seven) consecutive years will also be transferred to the demat account of the IEPF Authority in August / September, 2021.

However, the Company will not transfer such shares where there is a specific order of Court or Tribunal or any other statutory authority restraining any transfer of shares and payment of dividend or where such shares are pledged or hypothecated under the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996.

In compliance with the requirements of the said Rules, the Company has, vide its letter dated May 24, 2021, communicated individually to all those shareholders whose shares are liable to be transferred to the IEPF Authority in the month of August / September, 2021, at their registered addresses available with the Company.

The Company has also uploaded on its website viz. www.dbcorp Ltd.com, the List of shareholders whose unclaimed dividends/shares are liable for transfer to IEPF Authority. The Shareholders are requested to refer to the aforesaid website to verify the details of unclaimed dividends and the shares which are liable to be transferred to the IEPF Authority and thereafter contact the Company for making a valid claim in respect of such unclaimed dividend and the underlying shares.

In case, the Company does not receive any communication from these shareholders by August 15, 2021, the Company shall, with a view to complying with the requirements set out in the Act and the Rules framed thereunder, transfer the unpaid/unclaimed dividend and the underlying shares to IEPF Authority on the due date as per procedure stipulated in the Rules without giving any further notice, in the following manner:

In respect of shares held in Physical Form	The Company shall issue new share certificates in lieu of the original share certificates held by the concerned shareholders for the purpose of dematerialisation by way of corporate action and transfer of shares to IEPF Authority as per the Rules and upon such issue, the original share certificates which stand registered in the name of concerned shareholder will stand automatically cancelled and be deemed to be non-negotiable.
In respect of shares held in Dematerialised Form	The Company shall inform the depository to transfer the said shares in favour of demat account of the IEPF Authority by way of corporate action.

The concerned shareholders are requested to note that no liability shall lie against the Company in respect of the unpaid/unclaimed dividend amount and the underlying shares so transferred. The concerned shareholders may also note that both the unclaimed dividend and the underlying shares transferred to IEPF Authority including all benefits accruing on such shares, if any, except the right shares can be claimed back by the concerned shareholders from IEPF Authority after following the procedure prescribed under the Rules which is displayed on the website www.iepf.gov.in.
