Bangalore, July 11, 2012; Agila Specialties Pharma Corporation, Canada, which is part of the injectable drug division of Strides Arcolab, a globally renowned generic drug manufacturer, has formed a joint venture with Jamp Pharma, a Canadian generic drug company, to introduce a variety of quality injectable generic drugs in Canada.

This sales and marketing joint venture will operate under the name 'Agila-Jamp Canada Inc' in which Agila will hold 70% stake and the remaining 30% by Jamp Pharma. The JV will be headquartered in Boucherville, Québec.

Agila-Jamp will be launching around 40 products in the next 2 years. Many of these products have already been approved by Health Canada and will be immediately launched through local hospitals and pharmacists. The existing sales force at Jamp Pharma will be responsible to introduce the entire Agila-Jamp product portfolio.

"We have been looking to bring our quality products to Canada for quite some time. We have found in Jamp Pharma, a company that understands and will help us develop a market which needs our expertise in the development and manufacturing of injectable drugs," declared Adam Levitt, CEO- North America.

"Recent events have demonstrated that Canada is in dire need for a more diversified offering in terms of quality injectable generic drugs. Canadian hospitals, pharmacists and patients must be able to rely on a regular, steady and safe supply of critical and essential injectable drugs. We are proud that our products will help our healthcare system," said Mr. Louis Pilon, President and CEO Jamp Pharma.
