NDA leaders meet PM, Shah for dinner today amid exit poll euphoria

SANDEEP KUMAR
Bhopal, 20 May

While talking to the media, Bhargava said the Madhya Pradesh government will "fall on its own". He said the time has come and it will have to go soon. "We also want to test the strength of the Congress government," he added.

MP Chief Minister Kamal Nath said the government was ready for a floor test

Karnal Nath said: "They [the BJP] have been trying this since Day 1... have proved majority at least four times in last five months. They want to do it again, we have no problem. They'll try their best to disturb the present government to save themselves from getting exposed. The government is ready for a floor test."

Congress spokesperson Sreed. Jafar also dismissed the BJP's claim. He told Business Standard, "They are repeating this since the day we formed the govern-

On Sunday, BJP leader Kailash Vijayvargiya said Kamal Nath was "dreaming" about winning 22 Lok Sabha seats in the state at a time when there is a question mark over his government being able to survive for 22 days.

The exit polls forecast the BJP can win as much as 27 of the 29 seats in MP. But, the another episode, JAYAS (Jay Adiwas Yuwa Shakti Sangathan) leader and Congress MLA Hiralal Alawa had made it clear that he just contested on Congress symbol and he is not a member of the party. Alawa is unhappy because the party has not considered his candidature in Political analyst Gijra Shankar has a different take on the episode. He says, "There is no substance to these claims. Whether it is Kailash (Vijayavargiya) or Gopal Bhargava, they are all trying to come into the picture. They are afraid that after LS polls, (former CM) Shivraj Singh Chouhan may come back to the driver's seat in the state. They are just trying to take advantage of the situation."

The topmost leaders of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) will meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi and BJP chief Amit Shah over dinner on Tuesday. The dinner will be both the BJP leaders thanking NDA allies for their support in the 2019 Lok Sabha poll campaign and discussions on the road ahead.

While several exit polls have predicted a clear majority for the BJP on its own, some others have forecasted that the party could fall short of the majority mark and need support of its allies to reach the majority mark of 272 seats. The dinner will be held at the national capital's Odisha's ruling BJP indicated it might shed its equidistance from the NDA and Congress-led UPA. BJP spokesperson Amar Pattnaik said his party will support any coalition that will support its demand for granting special status to Odisha. "Going by the exit poll, if NDA forms the government in the Centre then we could very much be part of the government. Whoever understands our problem like special category status we are with them. We are open to that." he said.

ARCHIS MOHAN
New Delhi, 20 May

Opposition leaders on Monday rejected the exit polls that have predicted a majority for the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA), and said they could meet in the national capital on Thursday, the day of counting of votes, to firm up their strategy if trends point to a narrow Prodigy win.

A delegation of Opposition leaders will meet Election Commission officials on Tuesday. On Monday, Samajwadi Party (SP) President Akhilesh Yadav met Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) chief Mayawati in Lucknow. In

Delhi result declaration
may be delayed by 6 hrs

Dedication of results for the Delhi Lok Sabha seats may get delayed by around five to six hours on May 23 as more time will be spent on counting WPATs from each of the 70 Assembly segments, Chief Electoral Officer Ranbir Singh has said.

Munnetra Kazhagam chief K Stalin said his party did not believe in exit poll projections even if they are favourable to his party. Most exit polls have predicted the DMK-led alliance would win most of Tamil Nadu's 39 Lok Sabha seats.

granting anticipatory bail to Haasan, Justice K P Radhakrishnan of the Madurai bench of the high court said hate speeches had become common of late. At a recent poll rally, Haasan said the first extremist of independent India was a Hindu, a reference to Nathuram Godse who shot dead Mahatma Gandhi.

FM: Results to be in line with exit poll outcome Finance Minister Arun Jaitley on Monday said poll results would be in consonance with the outcome of multiple exit polls, which predicted a second term for the NDA. "When multiple exit polls convey the same message, the direction of the result broadly would be in consonance with the message," Jaitley said in a blogpost titled 'The Message of Exit Polls'.

Modi and Shah, Jharkhand Dal (United) chief Nitish Kumar, Shiv Sena chief Uddhav Thackeray and Lok Janshakti Party's Ram Vilas Paswan are likely to attend the meeting. Another meeting of BJP leaders, including union ministers, is likely to be held at the party headquarters on the same day.

Exit poll results have also somewhat quelled any speculation of an alternative front of regional parties getting together to form the government at the Centre. The Shiv Sena, the BJP's ally in Maharashtra, on Monday was dismissive of the efforts of Telugu Desam Party chief N Chandrababu Naidu to knit together an alliance of the Congress and regional parties.
