It has come to our attention that certain unknown persons have created and are operating fraudulent WhatsApp groups, Telegram groups and websites that misuse the name, logo and identity of Aventus Group and/or its employees. Through these unauthorized platforms, they are falsely purporting to provide investment advice and other communications with the intent to mislead and defraud members of the public.

We wish to categorically clarify that Aventus Group, comprising Aventus Capital Private Limited and its affiliates, and our employees are not associated with, connected to, or responsible for any such WhatsApp groups, Telegram groups, websites or other third-party platforms. The unauthorized use of our name, logo, brand identity or the names of our employees is fraudulent and without our knowledge, authority or consent.

Aventus Group entities are regulated entities. We do not operate, administer or participate in any third-party groups or websites that provide stock market tips, trading recommendations or investment advice through platforms such as WhatsApp, Telegram or similar messaging applications. We urge members of the public to rely only on communications received through their designated relationship manager or other official Aventus communication channels. Any person who deals with such unauthorized entities, transfers funds, or acts upon information or investment tips circulated through such fraudulent platforms shall do so entirely at their own risk, and Aventus Group shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage arising therefrom.

If you are approached by any person or entity claiming to represent Aventus Group or any of its affiliates or employees through such unauthorized platforms, or if you suspect any misuse of our name or brand, and are advised to refrain from engaging with them, avoid transferring any funds, and report the matter to the local police, the Cyber Crime Cell and the relevant stock exchanges, as appropriate.

Aventus Group has initiated appropriate legal proceedings, including lodging complaints with the Cyber Crime Cell and the relevant regulatory and law enforcement authorities, against the persons responsible for these fraudulent activities.
