In a first, Thanekars to get dedicated cycle track

Located near Upvan lake, the 850-mt-long track is expected to be ready in a fortnight

ABHITASH SINGH
Thane

In a boost to the morale of Thanekars who cycle either out of environmental concerns or simply for their love to pedal, a dedicated 850-mt-long and three-and-a-half-mt-wide cycle track is coming up in the city of lakes. Constructed by the Thane Municipal Corporation (TMC) at a cost of Rs 69.76 lakh, the city's first of its kind track starts from Siddhanchal Griha Sankul near Pawannagar bus stand close to Upvan lake. The construction work has reached its flag end, with the Thane Municipal Corporation (TMC) officials hoping to complete the project within next one or two weeks.

Speaking about the sought after track, TMC additional commissioner Sandeep Malvi said, "Considering the demands from the cycle enthusiasts, the civic body has undertaken the task of constructing this cycle lane near Upavan where the road is less congested." The cycling path has been built using synthetic polymer and is expected to be available for cyclists in the coming weeks or before the rains, he added.

Raising the issue on non-existence of cycling tracks in Thane city, NGO Madat Samajik Sanstha founder Sashi Agarwal said, "As of now, there is no separate lane for cyclists. Therefore, those who are fond of cycling as well as those who use bicycles to get to and fro from work have to wait in traffic. However, there is a risk of an accident, which gets further aggravated due to potholes on many roads." He underscored that there is a growing demand for separate cycle lanes for bicycles as many people are now using bicycles for fitness as well as for eco-friendly travel.

Describing the feature of the upcoming track, TMC executive engineer Prakash Khadtare said there will be coloured signages on the track and a coating will also be made. The area will be barricaded such that it is not used for parking, he said, adding that the construction cost also includes three year maintenance.

Few years ago, a similar track was developed in the Wagle Estate but the space got transformed into a parking lot due to lack of maintenance. However, learning from the "failure" of earlier initiative, a TMC official, on the condition of anonymity,

"As of now, there is no separate lane for cyclists. Therefore, those who are fond of cycling as well as those who use bicycles to get to and fro from work have to wait in traffic."

Sashi Agarwal, NGO Madat Samajik Sanstha founder

"The spot, where the track is being constructed, is already used for walking and cycling. I am confident that the cyclists from Thane will be giving a positive response to the upcoming cycle track in the city."

Izaz Ahmed, cyclist

said, "This time, we have chosen a spot where many cyclists often visit and it's a residential area so we expect better footfalls this time. We are also in talks with the cyclists in the city to understand their needs and develop more such tracks."

But, the project elicited a mixed response from cyclists as one described it as "sheer waste of money" and the other was overwhelmed at the idea.

Vinod Rawat, an avid cyclist who promotes long distance cycling said, "The initiative is really appreciative but a proper cycle track should be at least 4 km long. A small track of hardly 1 km length is futile and also a sheer waste of money. It would be better to cycle on the road than on such a small stretch. In foreign countries, there are tracks which are as long as 100-200 km long."

Presenting a contrasting view, another cyclist Izaz Ahmed appreciated the TMC's choice of place for building the track. The popular spot is already being used by people for walking and cycling, he pointed out, while exuding confidence that Thanekars will be giving a positive response to the upcoming cycle track.

City's maiden animal crematorium to come up in Dahisar

SHERINE RAJ
Mumbai

In August, the city will get its first animal crematorium where cadavers of pets could be cremated without cost. Currently, the cremation price starts at Rs 2,500 depending on the animal's size.

Located at Dahisar, the upcoming crematorium is being built by the BMC from the CSR or corporate social responsibility funds of Rs 25 lakh provided by Old Wise Oak Media. The facility will use an electric incinerator, and its construction will begin next week.

Former corporator Abhishek Ghosalkar said, "This is a pilot project and the BMC will build six more crematoriums in six administrative zones in the coming financial year." The Old Wise Oak Media will also manage the facility free of cost post construction. Explaining the move, Ghosalkar said the BMC has a clause while building crematoriums that if there is a private entity which would like to fund the facility, then it can be done.

Old Wise Oak Media's Nitin Divekar said, "Our organisation always indulges in animal welfare activities and this was a great opportunity for us to use our funds for a good cause towards animals of our city." Usually there are no proper burial or cremation places for animals because pet owners mostly bury the animal somewhere around in their area or come all the way to Parel where there is another crematorium for animals. "But, crematoriums like these all over the city will help the pet owners to bid farewell to their pet in a more dignified and convenient way," Divekar added.

Mumbai to host cycle rally on Sunday

Andheri said, "Such cycling rallies should be organised every week and not just around environment day, although this is surely a good start." Terming cycling as one of the best exercises, he said, "Most of us are stuck in our full time jobs and we have no time for ourselves and for our health. Cycling is easy and eco-friendly, which we can begin from a young age to keep ourselves fit."

There will be five different routes for the cycle rally. The first will start from

Man convicted for schoolgirl's rape-murder

A 34-year-old man, charged with the sexual assault and murder of a nine-year-old schoolgirl in 2019, was convicted on Tuesday by a sessions court in Dindoshi. The court convicted Vadivel alias Gundappa Devendra, who lived in the vicinity of the minor's home in Nehru Nagar of Vile Parle. As per the prosecution's case, on April 4 of 2019, the minor had just returned from school around 6.15 pm and started asking her mother for tea. Her mother was recuperating from an operation and having found it difficult to perform chores, gave her Rs 10 to purchase it from a nearby shop. The mother had got worried when her daughter did not return till 7 pm. She called up her mother and requested her to make inquiries with the shop. The grandmother found out that the child had not come to the shop. The family conducted a frantic search but to not avail. They lodged a kidnapping complaint with the police. Later, an acquaintance had told that he had seen Vadivel take the girl.

'A Wednesday' with city traffic police

Mumbai

To curb noise pollution arising out of unnecessary honking, the traffic police has planned to conduct a special 'NoHonkDay' campaign every Wednesday.

During the said campaign, police inspectors from all the traffic divisions in Mumbai will organise a full day 'No Honking Day' every Wednesday.

- Likely areas for No Honking Day Andheri, Bandra, Sakinaka, Mumbai Central, Churchgate, Borivali
- Challan action for unnecessary honking
- Anybody is welcome to participate in campaign
- Drivers to be counselled over ill-effects of noise pollution day within their jurisdiction. It will display a no honking sign or banner to motorists stopped at the signal. At the same time, they will provide guidance and counselling to the drivers for not honking without reason. In order to take legal action against the drivers violating no honking rules, challan action will be initiated against them.

An official from the traffic control department said, "The main areas where this No Honking drive will take place will mostly be in the areas which have either schools, colleges or hospitals in their vicinity. People should follow the rules and not honk unnecessarily as it causes noise pollution and inconvenience to people." Volunteers, NGOs and anyone who wants to participate can approach their local police inspectors from the traffic divisions. There are many places with a lot of traffic throughout the city. Therefore, this is a good initiative which will help decrease the noise pollution levels of the city and make it more livable, the official added.

The traffic department has also shared their helpline number: 8454999999, for any queries regarding 'NoHonkDay'.

A special awareness campaign against unnecessary honking was also organised by the traffic police on Sunday. This awareness campaign took place at several locations, including Andheri, Bandra, Sakinaka, Mumbai Central and Borivali. The traffic police used posters, banners and mobile van speakers. The people were informed about the ill-effects of unnecessary honking, which leads to noise pollution, increased blood pressure and other health problems.

Fuel owners protest: Just another day for city wheels

SHERINE RAJ AND SHASHANK RAO

The one-day protest held by the petrol pump dealers didn't have much effect on Mumbaiers. As a mark of agitation, these dealers didn't buy fuel or refill their tanks from oil marketing companies. They said they have enough fuel in their tanks and have no intention to cause problems to motorists. "Many dealers had filled up their tanks, which have a capacity to last two to three days. We hope that the government takes stock of the situation and heeds to our demands," said a dealer, who is a part of the Maharashtra Petrol Dealers Association.

The protestors demand raising commissions, which have remained unchanged for the past few years despite rise in fuel prices. Another reason is the proclaimed losses incurred due to the recent drop in fuel prices as the tax cuts were implemented on weekend, while dealers refuelled their tanks as per prices applicable on May 20. There are nearly 150 fuel stations across the city and each owner claims to be losing anywhere between Rs 5-15 lakh on an average.

Generally, dealers can't go on strike as they fall under essential services. However, they argued that they are compelled to take serious action if the government doesn't take adequate steps.

A petrol dealer from a pump at Mumbai Central said, "We are following the strike, we have not refuelled our pump today. We can't completely stop the supply, but at least by such acts, the government will know that we are not happy, and want our demands to be met."

The protestors sounded sceptical about attracting govt's attention but said they can't sit idle

Another dealer at Bandra said, "We have been protesting against this for five years but our margin has not been increased. Every year, we try to show some agitation but nothing has changed. Our union members have been protesting since morning, and were there till late evening. I am not sure if the government will change its decision because of our protest, but we can't just sit idle, we have to do at least something about it."

Bridging Distance

BMC builds Mahim-Dharavi bridge in record 17 days

Constructing it was a challenge owing to dense population and heavy traffic around the area

SHEFALI PARAB-PANDIT
Mumbai

The BMC on Tuesday set a record of constructing a temporary bridge, connecting Mahim and Dharavi, in a span of just 17 days. The dilapidated bridge, running over the Dadar-Dharavi nullah, was closed for vehicular traffic after a portion of a culvert under it collapsed a few years ago. The infra's closure was causing tremendous hardship to locals and the commercial establishments. Considering the issue, education minister and Dharavi MLA Varsha Gaikwad held a meeting with the BMC officials and requested an immediate solution.

Accordingly, BMC additional commissioner P Velrasu visited the site on May 11 and instructed the bridge department to construct a temporary bridge for light motor vehicles before monsoon. The deadline was more hard to achieve as the area is not only densely populated but also sees heavy vehicular traffic. Hence, the construction work was only possible during late nights.

The bridge department took it as a challenge and started the demolition work on May 13. It took five days to raze the culvert measuring 16m×4m. Simultaneously, the feasible design of the bridge weighing about 30 tonnes was prepared by the consultant. The construction work started on May 18, and was completed on Tuesday. BMC deputy commissioner (infrastructure) Ulhas Mahale said, "The entire process of demolition and construction of the temporary bridge took only 17 days, which is the civic body's record in bridge construction."

The newly-built bridge will open for light vehicles today. The process of reconstructing a permanent bridge is underway and the work will start post-monsoon.

हनुमान जन्मभूमीवरून शास्त्रार्थ सभेत राडा

वार्ताहर/नाशिक

नाशिकमध्ये हनुमान जन्मभूमीच्या वादावर तोडगा काढण्यासाठी शास्त्रार्थ सभेचे आयोजन करण्यात आले होते. या सभेत साधू-महंतांमध्ये जोरदार वाद झाला.

नाशिकमध्ये मंगळवारी हनुमान जन्मभूमीच्या वादावर तोडगा काढण्यासाठी आयोजित करण्यात आलेल्या शास्त्रार्थ सभेत साधू-महंतांमध्येच आसन व्यवस्थेवरून जोरदार वाद झाला. शिवाय या सभेत महंतांनी एकमेकांवर माईकदेखील उगारला. मागील अनेक दिवसांपासून हनुमान जन्मभूमीवरून नवा वाद सुरू झाला आहे. कर्नाटकातील किष्किंधा ही हनुमानाची जन्मभूमी असल्याचा दावा किष्किंधाचे महंत गोविंदनंद महाराजांनी केला होता. शिवाय त्यांनी नाशिकचे अंजनेरी हनुमानाचे जन्मस्थान असल्याचे सिद्ध करावे, असे आव्हान नाशिकच्या साधू-महंतांना दिले होते. याच पार्श्वभूमीर आजची ही सभा आयोजित करण्यात आली होती. दरम्यान, गोविंदनंद यांनी इतर साधू महंतांसोबत

खाली बसण्यास होकार दिल्यानंतर सभेला पुन्हा सुरुवात झाली. जवळपास तीन ते साडेतीन तासांपासून ही चर्चा सुरू होती. यामध्ये साधू-महंतांकडून दावे आणि प्रतिदावे केले गेले, त्यासाठी ब्रह्मपुराणसह अन्य काही कागदपत्रांचा दाखला देत अंजनेरीच हनुमान जन्मस्थान असल्याचा नाशिकच्या साधू, महंतांना दावा केला. तर गोविंदनंद महाराज हे किष्किंधा हीच खरी जन्मभूमी असल्याच्या भूमिकेवर ठाम आहेत. दरम्यान, वादामुळे आता सभा स्थगित करण्यात आली.

गौतम मंगळे/अलिबाग

पतीच्या दारूच्या व्यसनामुळे आपल्या सहा लहान निरागस मुलांना विहिरीत फेकून त्यांना ठार मारणाऱ्या महिलाविरुद्ध पोलिसांनी हत्येचा गुन्हा दाखल केला आहे. तिचा व्यसनाधीन पती या घटनेला कारणीभूत असल्यामुळे पोलीस त्याच्यावरही कारवाई करण्याच्या तयारीत आहेत.

पतीविरुद्धही कारवाई होणार

महाडमधील खरवली गावात सोमवारी सायंकाळी ही हृदयद्रावक घटना घडली. रुना साहनी ही महिला तिचा पती चिखुरी, त्यांच्या पाच मुली आणि एक मुलगा यांच्यासोबत राहायची. चिखुरी हा व्यवसायाने गवंडी असून हे कुटुंब मूळचे उत्तर प्रदेशातील गोरखपूरचे आहे. उदरनिर्वाहाच्या शोधात काही वर्षांपूर्वी ते महाराष्ट्रात आले होते. सध्या ते खरवलीत राहत होते. सोमवारी सायंकाळी काही गावकऱ्यांनी अस्वस्थ रुनाला आणि तिच्या मुलांना गावातल्या विहिरीकडे जाताना पाहिले. गावकऱ्यांना काही कळण्याच्या आताच सर्व मुलांना एकामागून एक विहिरीत ढकलले. रुना उडी मारणार इतक्यात गावकऱ्यांनी विहिरीवर धाव घेतली. त्याचवेळी ग्रामस्थांपैकी एकाने पोलिसांना फोन केला. महाड एमआयडीसी पोलीस ठाण्याचे पथक तातडीने घटनास्थळी दाखल झाले. मुलांना विहिरीतून बाहेर काढण्यात आले, त्यांना स्थानिक सरकारी रुग्णालयात नेण्यात आले; मात्र दाखल करण्यापूर्वीच त्यांचा मृत्यू झाला होता. रोशनी (१०), करिश्मा (८), रेश्मा (६), विद्या (५), शिवराज (३) आणि राधा (२) अशी त्यांची नावे आहेत.

लाच घेताना पोलीस अधिकाऱ्याला अटक

मुंबई : ७० हजार रुपयांची लाच घेताना खार पोलीस ठाण्याचे सहाय्यक पोलीस निरीक्षक स्वप्नील बबनराव मासळकर यांना सोमवारी लाचलुचपत प्रतिबंधक विभागाच्या अधिकाऱ्यांनी अटक केली. गुन्हा दाखल न करण्यासाठी स्वप्नील मासळकर यांनी तक्रारदाराकडे ८० हजार रुपयांची लाचेची मागणी केल्याचे पोलिसांनी सांगितले. यातील तक्रारदार खार परिसरात राहत असून त्यांच्या मालकीचे तिथे एक इमारत आहे. या इमारतीला महानगरपालिकेने धोकादायक इमारत म्हणून घोषित केले होते. तशी नोटीस त्यांना बजाविण्यात आली होती.

ध्वनिप्रदूषण रोखण्यासाठी खास मोहीम

मुंबईत वाहनांची संख्या प्रचंड आहे. त्यामुळे मुंबईत वाहतूककोंडीसह ध्वनिप्रदूषण मोठ्या प्रमाणात होते. त्यामुळे वाढत्या ध्वनिप्रदूषणावर आळा घालण्यासाठी मुंबई पोलीस वाहतूक शाखेने 'नो हॉर्किंग डे' ही विशेष मोहीम राबवली आहे. ध्वनिप्रदूषण रोखण्यासाठी वाहनचालकांमध्ये या मोहिमेअंतर्गत जनजागृती करण्यात येणार आहे.

करण्यासाठी वाहतूक नियमांचे उल्लंघन करण्यासह नो हॉर्निंगच्या नियमांचे उल्लंघन करणाऱ्या जास्तीत जास्त वाहनचालकांवर चालान कारवाई केली जाणार आहे.

कोरोनाचे ५०६ नवे रुग्ण

मुंबई : कोरोनाची तिसरी लाट ओसरते, तोच चौथ्या लाटेचे संकेत आरोग्य विभागाने दिले आहेत. गेल्या काही दिवसांपासून रोज आढळणारी रुग्णसंख्या ३००च्या घरात होती; मात्र मंगळवारी दिवसभरात ५०६ नवीन रुग्ण आढळल्याने मुंबईत कोरोनाबाधित रुग्णांची संख्या १० लाख ६५ हजार ८०२ वर पोहोचली आहे. तर दिवसभरात शुन्य मृत्यूची नोंद झाल्याने मृतांची संख्या १९ हजार ५६६वर स्थिरावली आहे. दरम्यान, मंगळवारी २१८ रुग्णांनी कोरोनावर मात केली आहे.
