* Pursuant to the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Master Direction dated January 16, 2023, the RBI, through its communication dated May 13, 2025, clarified that the individuals listed in the second row of this disclosure are to be treated as Persons Acting in Concert (PAC). The concerned bank, Suryoday Small Finance Bank Limited, has also been informed by the RBI accordingly. As communicated by the Bank, its Board of Directors has taken on record the shareholding of the said PACs and, as a result, has restricted our voting rights to below 5% with effect from May 16, 2025. In this regard, we are also in the process of seeking post-facto approval from the Reserve Bank of India for having crossed the 5% threshold, pursuant to the RBI's clarification on aggregate shareholding.

Prior to receiving this clarification, it was our understanding and belief that certain individuals among the seven persons listed in the second row were not required to be treated as PACs. If such individuals were excluded, the aggregate shareholding would have been below the 5% threshold. Based on this understanding, no disclosure under the applicable regulations was made earlier.

In light of the RBI's clarification, we are now making this disclosure in compliance with the relevant regulatory requirements.
