LOK SABHA DEBATES BILLS ON WOMEN QUOTA, DELIMITATION, HOUSE STRENGTH COUNT

Naari Shakti watching, PM warns

Prime Minister Narendra Modi speaks in the Lok Sabha during the special session of Parliament, on New Delhi on Thursday

VIKAS PATHAK
New Delhi, April 16

ADDRESSING CONCERNS
OVER representation, especially in southern and smaller states, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said that no state will be discriminated against in the delimitation of constituencies linked to the reservation of seats for women in the Lok Sabha and state assemblies. He said "the proportion of seats in the Lok Sabha will not change".

He cautioned Opposition parties that women of the country would not forgive them if they were to stall implementation of the proposed law for "inclusion of 50% of the population in policy making" which was "the need of the hour" and could not be delayed any longer.

Participating in the Lok Sabha discussion on three Bills relating to reservation for women, delimitation and increase in the strength of Lok Sabha, Modi said "Naari Shakti will be watching our decision (nirnay), and more than that, our intent (neeyat). They will never forgive any ill-intention on our part."

Seeking to address concerns over the fallout of delimitation of constituencies, especially in Tamil Nadu where the ruling DMK under MK Stalin has been opposing delimitation, he said, "The proportion of seats will not change; the increase will be in the same proportion...if you want a guarantee or a promise, I will say so. If there is a good word in Tamil, I will use it. When the intention is good, we do not need to play with words."

He said none who has taken oath on the Constitution should think of the country in parts, that is to be as seen as a nation. He said he was willing to offer a guarantee and a promise that the proportionate share of states in Lok Sabha would not change after its expansion, as sought by the Bills.

Underlining that everyone wanted early implementation of the quota for women in 2023, he said 2024 was too close to implement it. The need of the hour, he said, was not to delay it any longer. "None has given us the right to sit here and think of the country in terms of parts. We have taken an oath and have to see ourselves as a nation...But in view of the frenzy being whipped up for votes, I say with responsibility that this decision will not discriminate against anyone or do injustice to anyone," he said.

"We should not delude ourselves into thinking that we are giving something to Nari Shakti of the country. It is her right. We have denied it for decades and we should liberate ourselves from that," he said.

"Today, we don't have the courage to deny it openly, so technical points and excuses are being sought...You have stalled it for three decades, but achieved nothing. So, pass it now. He urged members.

"Some people here think that Modi's political greed is behind this...If you oppose it, it is natural that I will gain politically. But if we all come together, none will benefit in particular." He linked the passage of the women's quota Bill to the aspiration for a developed India. "Viksit Bharat also inclusion of 50% of the population in policymaking," he said.

'Open attack on democracy': Oppn slams govt move

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, April 16

CONGRESS LEADER PRIYANKA GANDHI Vadra on Thursday said the government began finishing off democracy by putting pressure on institutions, such as the Election Commission (EC) and the judiciary, but now an "open attack" has been launched on democracy with the Constitution amendment Bill.

Participating in the debate in the Lok Sabha, she asked why can't the government give 33% reservation to women on the current 543 seats of the Lok Sabha. If this Constitution amendment Bill is passed in Parliament, democracy will be finished in India, she added.

Samajwadi Party president Akhilesh Yadav accused the BJP-led central government of turning "naari" (women) into a "naara" (slogan) for political benefits and demanded reservation for OBC and Muslim women under the proposed women's quota law. During the debate, Yadav said the Samajwadi Party has always supported reservation for women and furthered the cause of women-led development.

The former Uttar Pradesh chief minister sought to corner the ruling party on the women's reservation issue, saying that the BJP and its allies have governments in 21 states and Union Territories, but they have only one woman chief minister in Delhi.

Meanwhile, Tamil Nadu Chief Minister MK Stalin burnt a copy of the delimitation Bill and dubbed it a "black law", alleging it seeks to make the Tamil people "refugees" in their own land.

Stalin hoisted a black flag and burnt a copy of the Bill at Namakkal in western Tamil Nadu, where he is campaigning in connection with electioneering, hours before the Parliament was to sit for a special session.

"Paradavam, Veluvom ondraga" (Let us struggle, win together) was among the slogans raised by Stalin and others clad in black.

In a statement, Stalin said: "Let the flames of resistance spread across Tamil Nadu. Let the arrogance of the fascist BJP be brought down. Then, the fire of resistance against Hindi imposition that rose from Tamil Nadu scorched Delhi. It quietened only after Delhi was forced to yield."

POLL POSITION

Vijay's TVK promises money, gold & more

TVK CHIEF VIJAY on Thursday unveiled sweeping assurances in the party manifesto ahead of the April 23 Assembly elections in Tamil Nadu that included ₹2,500 monthly assistance for women below 60 years, 8 g gold for marriage and six free cooking gas cylinders a year, per family. The actor-turned-politician also assured quality silk saree in addition to gold for indigent brides and interest-free loans up to ₹5 lakh for women-run SHGs. He assured corruption-free good governance if voted to power in his maiden electoral fight.

Mamata 'welcomes' infiltrators: Assam CM

ASSAM CHIEF MINISTER Himanta Biswa Sarma on Thursday asserted that while BJP governments in his state and Tripura don't allow infiltration from Bangladesh, TMC supreme leader Mamata Banerjee "welcomes" illegal immigrants in West Bengal. He was addressing an election rally in support of BJP candidates here at Alipurduar district bordering Assam.

UP CM targets TMC over 'mafia rule'

UTTAR PRADESH CHIEF Minister Yogi Adityanath mounted a sharp attack on the ruling TMC during a series of rallies in West Bengal, alleging the state had been pushed into an "identity crisis" over the past 15 years because of corruption, extortion and the rise of what he described as "mafia rule". He was addressing poll meetings in Birbhum's Rampurhat and Bolpur and Paschim Bardhaman's Barabani.

SC: Bengal voters cleared by tribunals before polls can vote

ANANTHAKRISHNAN G
New Delhi, April 16

IN A SIGNIFICANT decision for the West Bengal polls, the Supreme Court has allowed voters cleared by Appellate Tribunals, set up for the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls in the state, to vote in the Assembly polls—provided their appeals are decided before April 21 and 27, respectively, for the first and second phases.

The court said their names will be added through a "supplementary revised electoral roll" for the two-phase elections to be held on April 23 and April 29.

A bench of Chief Justice of India Surya Kant and Justice Joydip Bagchi said in its April 13 order, which was made available Thursday, that "if an appeal is allowed by the Appellate Tribunal and a conclusive direction for inclusion or exclusion is issued, such directions shall be duly effectuated prior to the State of West Bengal proceeding to polling on 23.04.2026 or 29.04.2026, as the case may be."

West Bengal CM Mamata Banerjee welcomed the apex court's decision

In its order, the SC bench said it was invoking its powers under Article 142 to direct the Election Commission (EC) that "whenever the Appellate Tribunals are able to decide the appeals by 21.04.2026 or 27.04.2026, as the case may be, such appellate orders shall be given effect to by issuing a supplementary revised electoral roll, and all necessary consequences with respect to the right to vote shall follow."

The bench, however, clarified that "mere pendency of appeals preferred by excluded persons before the Appellate Tribunals shall not entitle them to exercise their right to vote." It said, "if such a scenario were to be permitted to subsist, the consequence would be that objectors may likewise seek denial of the right to vote to those individuals whose names appear in the revised electoral roll, but against whom such objectors have preferred appeals."
