At its meeting today, the Board of Directors approved the first interim dividend of ₹1 per share (face value: ₹2) for FY 2026–27, translating into a payout of approximately ₹6.87 cr.

August 04, 2026: Mr. Nrupesh Shah, Managing Director (Corporate Affairs), Symphony Limited has commented:

Symphony Limited reported its second-highest June quarter consol. revenue and EBITDA, reflecting resilient domestic demand, disciplined execution and continued progress on strategic diversification across businesses and geographies.

Consol. Performance:

- Consolidated revenue and EBITDA were the second highest for the June quarter.
- Standalone performance was driven by India-led growth, disciplined execution, and expansion in both gross and EBITDA margins.
- Beyond India Summer Products (BISP) delivered ₹560 cr. in trailing twelve-month revenue, contributing 48% and reinforcing Symphony's strategic diversification from the Indian summer.
- Bonaire USA recorded 35% revenue growth, driven by the successful scale-up of new air cooler SKUs.
- GSK China delivered 43% revenue growth, with operating leverage supporting profitability.
- IMPCO Mexico revenue declined by 18%, impacted by a muted summer.
- CTPL Australia revenue softened by 11%.
- Profitability is up, but sill impacted by
    - ₹5 cr. one-off non-cash expenses in Q1 FY27 and
    - ₹9 cr. higher other income in Q1 FY26, comprising ₹3.6 cr. treasury income, ₹2.9 cr. forex gain and ₹2.4 cr. one-off income.

Standalone Performance:

- Standalone revenue was the second highest for the June quarter, underscoring resilience in domestic demand.
- India revenue grew 15%, supported by volume growth. Modern trade more than doubled, while digital channels, including D2C, remained highly profitable.

- With trade and company inventory fully normalized, there is no season-end inventory overhang.
- BISP trailing twelve-month revenue stood at ₹179 cr., contributing 23% and reducing dependence on the Indian summer.
- Exports declined due to lower subsidiary and third-party sales, compounded by geopolitical and shipping disruptions.
- Gross margin and EBITDA margin remained resilient despite massive cost increases and supported by pre-season stocking, favorable product mix and cost discipline.
- Profitability improved, though the YoY comparison was impacted by ₹16.9 cr. higher other income in Q1 FY26, comprising ₹4.7 cr. forex gain, ₹3.6 cr. treasury income and ₹8.5 cr. one-off income.
