Annexure A

Systango awarded the contract to build a ‘Procurement Management System’ from a 25+ year old leading IT Services and consulting company in the UK

We are happy to inform our shareholders that Systango has been awarded the contract to build a ‘Procurement Management System’ for a 25+ year old leading IT Services and consulting company in the UK. Systango will leverage AI for data analytics, helping companies gain deeper insights into spending patterns using spend data, supplier performance, a chat assistant using intelligent document processing and cost-saving opportunities for added profitability.

Systango’s Director View

Mrs. Vinita Rathi – Managing Director at Systango said “Data Engineering and AI are enabling businesses to automate tasks and processes, gain insights from data, and improve customer experiences. We view this contract as a significant milestone – not just in our company expansion and influence across Europe and the Americas, but also in the domain of Data & AI. This will open new doors for Systango.”
