TCS Reinforces Its Leadership Position in Quality Assurance Services at the European Software Testing Awards 2015

TCS Takes Home Prestigious Awards For Key Client Pojects and Innovations

LONDON | MUMBAI, December 8, 2015: Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS) a leading global IT services, consulting and business solutions organisation, has further demonstrated its leadership in Quality Assurance (QA) and Testing services at The European Software Testing Awards, 2015.

The awards, organised by TEST Magazine, the UK's leading software testing magazine, are now in their third year and celebrate excellence, best practice and innovation in the UK & European software testing and QA community. During the awards, held at Old Billingsgate, in the City of London, TCS was recognised in four key areas:

- The Best Agile Project award in partnership with Aviva - Awarded to the project which has demonstrated the best use of an agile approach in software testing
- The Best Mobile Project award in partnership with the Avis Budget Group - Awarded to the project which has made the most innovative use of technology and testing in a mobile application
- Testing Innovator of the Year award – Awarded for exemplary innovation in the testing field at Aviva
- The Leading Vendor – Highly Commended recognition – Awarded to the outstanding vendor with a commitment to deliver high-quality innovative products and services with a focus on excellent customer service

Siva Ganesan, Vice President and Global Head, Assurance Services Unit, TCS, said: "The European Software Testing Awards acknowledge the success of TCS' innovative assurance solutions in enabling enterprises across the UK & Europe to achieve their business goals. At the forefront of Digital and Agile Assurance, TCS has helped its customers reimagine and transform the impact of assurance on their business."

Cecilia Rehn, Editor, TEST Magazine, said: "Entries into The European Software Testing Awards 2015 increased by 20 percent this year and across the board evidence of quality, innovation and excellence was very high. TCS' entries stood out due to their innovative methodologies and solid communication with clients. In today's world, when quality and assurance are growing in importance, it's great to see industry leaders such as TCS recognised for their work."
