Clarification on the Recent Media Reports

23 February 2012

Goa, 23 February 2012: In respect of media reports as to freezing of Sesa Goa's bank accounts by Income Tax Department, the Company clarifies that at present no account of the Company stands frozen. The Income Tax Department had raised a demand for ₹ 246 crores disallowing certain claims of the Company in December 2011 during regular assessment proceedings.

The company has been legally advised that the case is strong from the Company's side and accordingly no provision has been made against those demands. The company will take all necessary legal steps in normal course to quash these demands.
