IKS Health Wins Additional Top Honors in 2025 Black Book Surveys in Clinical Documentation and Medical Coding

Wins follow recent first-ever award in new AI-driven RCM category

Dallas, TX & Mumbai, India – March 19, 2025 – IKS Health, a global leader in care enablement solutions supporting clinicians and patients at every step of the care journey, is proud to announce two new 2025 Black Book Research leadership wins: Clinical Documentation for 12 straight years and Medical Coding for the third year in a row. The new awards follow the company's recent #1 ranking in the first-ever AI-driven Revenue Cycle Management (RCM) category, creating a trifecta of industry validation.

“IKS Health is dedicated to providing the most comprehensive set of solutions for clinicians, nurses, and staff by combining pragmatic technology and human expertise that adapts to any clinical workflow,” said Grace Terrell, MD, Chief Medical Officer, IKS Health. “We believe that smarter healthcare leads to better outcomes, and this recognition by Black Book Research cements our commitment to allowing clinicians to focus on the core of medicine rather than its chores.”

Black Book Research Founder Doug Brown noted that the wins signal IKS Health's consistent delivery of client satisfaction, reliability, and seamless alignment across a number of key performance indicators.

“Today's market must respond to the evolving operational needs of healthcare organizations, including strategic moves toward greater efficiency and cost control,” Brown said. “IKS Health's recent successes in Clinical Documentation and Coding, along with securing the top spot in our inaugural AI-driven Revenue Cycle Management category, highlight their continued leadership across key performance metrics.”

In its 2025 Clinical Documentation, Virtual Medical Scribes & Managed Transcription Services survey of 1,146 users from hospitals, healthcare delivery networks, and physician practices, IKS Health ranked first among 20 competitors for the following six performance indicators:

1. Best-of-Breed Technology and Process Improvement
2. Client Relationships and Cultural Fit
3. Deployment and Implementation
4. Reliability
5. Viability and Managerial Stability
6. Data Security, Privacy, and Backup Services

In its 2025 Medical Coding survey of 1,674 users from hospitals, physician groups, ambulatory centers, long term care facilities, and healthcare delivery networks, IKS Health ranked first among 20 competitors in the following seven performance indicators:

1. Best-of-Breed Technology and Process Improvement
2. Strategic Alignment of Client Goals: ONC, MACRA, MIPS, VBC, Growth Initiatives
3. Innovation
4. Scalability, Client Adaptability, and Flexible Pricing
5. Compensation and Employee Performance
6. Marginal Value Adds
7. Support and Customer Care

“It is a true honor for IKS Health to be recognized by Black Book Research and our valued customers in three of our key solution areas: Clinical Documentation, Medical Coding, and AI-driven RCM,” said Sachin K. Gupta, Founder and CEO, IKS Health. “Our comprehensive platform leverages these areas to deliver compounding value to more than 700 U.S. healthcare organizations dedicated to patient care. This recognition reaffirms our strategy of achieving excellence in all aspects of our platform, even as we expand its breadth as the most comprehensive care enablement platform for clinicians, healthcare organizations, and ultimately, patients.”
