Press Release

TUI Travel PLC buys Sonata's stake in TUI InfoTec and commits to long term partnership

Bangalore, September 28, 2012

Sonata Software, an IT consulting and software services provider and TUI Travel PLC (one of world's leading leisure travel groups), today announced that Sonata Europe Limited has today signed an Agreement with TUI Travel PLC to transfer its 50.1% shareholding in TUI InfoTec back to TUI Travel PLC. Completion of the transaction is subject to German competition approval and other conditions precedent. TUI InfoTec is an IT Company headquartered in Hanover rendering substantially a large part of its services to Companies in TUI Travel PLC

As part of the transaction Sonata is being accorded status of a "preferred partner" for IT services to TUI Travel PLC. The Offshore Development Centres(ODC) currently being run by Sonata for TUI Travel PLC and TUI InfoTec will continue. So nata and TUI InfoTec will also continue to develop together 3rd party business (outside of TUI Travel PLC) in the German region.

Sonata has been a trusted partner for TUI Travel PLC for the past 8 years. Both parties believe that this arrangement will only further strengthen their current relationship.

Commenting on the transaction, Mr Srikar Reddy, CEO and Managing Director of Sonata said:

"We have been working with TUI Travel PLC for the last 8 years and have built very strong relationships with different stakeholders within the Group. The Joint Venture had further helped us in strengthening this relationship and we believe we can apply the knowledge of the business and technology learnt over this period to enhance the strategic business advantage of TUI Travel PLC as they continue to invest in new technologies".

Commenting on the transaction, Mr Jim Mann of TUI Travel PLC said:

"We look forward to continuing our long and successful relationship with Sonata".
