Sonata Software to showcase its Enterprise Mobile strategy, platforms and solutions at the M-Enterprise Event in Boston

Boston, October 14th, 2015

Sonata Software, a leading technology services and solutions company, today announced its participation as a sponsor at the M Enterprise event being held from October 19th to 21st, 2015 in Boston.

At the event, Sonata will showcase, apart from its successful enterprise mobility solutions and services, its recently acquired Enterprise Mobile Enablement Platform entity, Halosys, in one-to-one meetings to the attendees. The Halosys platform gives a comprehensive solution to build, secure, deploy and manage mobile Apps. The MobileFirst approach of Halosys platform provides a 360 degree coverage of Apps, Users, Data & devices with seamless connectivity to business systems using sophisticated mBaaS at its core. Sonata would also demonstrate case study presentation to executives attending the event.

Sonata has invested strategically in mobility over the last few years to partner with leading global brands in their mobility journey. Sonata helps its clients achieve their core business goals by setting up Mobility Center of Excellence. Halosys platform is backed by Sonata's full-service capability including mobile strategy, engaging UX design and cutting-edge technology based mobile apps development and support.

"Mobility has led the digital transformation of business. Halosys platform ensures that our customers not only leverage their existing investments but also are future ready for the digital transformation of their business" said Avinash Harsh, Head, Sonata Mobility Platform business and co-founder, Halosys (www.halosys.com).

The Enterprise Mobility Exchange is an invite only senior level conference. It provides strategic insights in the mobility space.
