For Immediate Release

Suzlon wins 29.70 MW repeat order from the Malpani Group

- Highlights strong relationship with Malpani Group; sixth order placed with Suzlon since 2000
- New order takes Malpani Group's wind portfolio to over 125 MW

Pune: Suzlon Energy Limited (SEL), India's largest wind turbine manufacturer, has won a repeat order from the Malpani Group to set up, operate and maintain projects totaling 29.70 MW.

Malpani Group is a renowned business conglomerate in the state of Maharashtra with business interests in agro, entertainment and leisure, real estate and FMCG, in addition to wind energy.

In this sixth order to Suzlon, the Malpani Group has opted to include Suzlon's recently launched S9X turbines in the product mix. The 29.70 MW order comprises of five units of S95 - 2.1 MW, seven units of Suzlon's S88 - 2.1 MW and three units of Suzlon's S82 - 1.5 MW wind turbine generators. This project will take Malpani Group's total wind capacity to more than 125 MW, enough energy to power more than 72,000 Indian households.

Speaking on the subject, Mr Rajesh Malpani of Malpani Group, said: "This is an important step forward in our efforts to create a sustainable energy portfolio for our Group, and builds on our earlier successful projects with the Suzlon Group. Suzlon has proven itself an ideal partner to us, combining their "concept-to-commissioning" solutions and a highly reliable technology platform. This also helps us to meet our clean energy goals set as a part of our corporate social responsibility".

Mr Tulsi R. Tanti - founder, Chairman and Managing Director, Suzlon Group said: "We have a long standing relationship with the Malpani Group, their continued business with us not only underscores their faith in our capabilities, but also their dedication to clean energy solutions. We look forward to delivering yet another successful project for the Group".

About Suzlon Group:

The Suzlon Group is ranked as the world's fifth largest* wind turbine supplier, in terms of cumulative installed capacity, at the end of 2010.
