Re: News item in the "economictimes.indiatimes.com" dated April 26, 2022 captioned "Tata Motors sweeps Rs 5,000 cr e-bus government tender"

With reference to your email dated April 27, 2022 seeking clarification/confirmation in respect of the above news item we would like to clarify as under:

1. The Company in its normal course of business participated in the tender for e-buses floated by Convergence Energy Services Limited, a subsidiary of state-run Energy Efficiency Services Limited.

2. The Press Information Bureau of Government of India had made a press release on captioned subject on April 26, 2022, which could be accessed through following link https://pib.gov.in/PressReleseDetailm.aspx?PRID=1820315

3. In response to media queries, the Company has made below mentioned official statement and the said response was carried by several prominent media today:

   "We are delighted to learn that we are the lowest bidder for the prestigious tender of 5580 electric buses from Convergence Energy Services Ltd (CESL). Tata Motors is committed towards providing green, safe and sustainable transport solutions across the country. We await a formal communication from CESL."

Since the Company is yet to receive any official communication from CESL, we are unable to comment on the captioned news item. We will promptly notify the Stock Exchanges in terms of Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations & Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 as and when applicable.

Trust the above clarifies the position. We would request you to take the above submission on records of the Stock Exchanges.

Yours faithfully,
Tata Motors Limited
