Dear Sirs/ Madam,

This has reference to your notice dated August 1, 2016, with respect to the news article "Sale of most of the UK business including its largest plant Port Talbot will be stalled. However, the deal for plants making specialty steel in Hartlepool, Rotherham and Stocksbridge could be up for sale worth 100mn Pounds".

I would like to draw your attention that the Company has made appropriate disclosures with respect to restructuring of its European Operations vide its communications dated March 29, 2016 (Review of European Portfolio of Tata Steel) and July 8, 2016 (Tata Steel announces developments regarding the strategy for its European Operations).

Against this background, the Company is from time to time involved in discussions on strategic perspectives for particular business activities. Such discussions are ongoing management tasks and we do not comment on speculation about such discussions.

We wish to clarify that currently there are no material development(s) that necessitates disclosure(s) in terms of Regulation 30 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

This is for your information and records.

Yours faithfully,

Tata Steel Limited

Parvatheesam
