Digitate Debuts SaaS for Entire ignio™ Product Suite to Increase Business Agility and Scalability

AI-Powered Offering for Autonomous Enterprise IT and Business Ops Now Available as a Dynamically Scalable Service

SANTA CLARA | MUMBAI, May 29, 2020: Digitate, a software venture of Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS) a leading global IT services, consulting and business solutions organization, announced the release of a Software-as-a-Service (SaaS)-based version of its entire ignio™ software suite that addresses business needs using artificial intelligence and machine learning (AI/ML) for rapidly growing enterprises. The SaaS version of the ignio software suite enables quick configuration and deployment, high scalability, and cost-effective pricing along with strong security and consistent availability with the latest updates.

Consisting of five standalone software products – ignio AIOps, ignio AI.WorkloadManagement, ignio AI.ERPOps, Cognitive Procurement and ignio AI.Digital Workspace – the ignio software product family blends artificial intelligence and machine learning to deliver autonomous enterprise IT and business operations, with out-of-the-box features that enable it to execute many routine tasks autonomously. With ignio, operation teams can quickly address pain points, identify the source of programs and fix them autonomously, freeing up time and resources to devote to innovation and high value work.

Tim Grieser, Research Vice President, Enterprise System Management Software, IDC, said: "The key benefits of SaaS solutions emphasize the ability to scale and move quickly. In recent years, the majority of enterprise IT buyers have embraced SaaS-enabled software as a viable option to replace on-premises packaged applications. Key drivers include greater business and IT agility, modernization/replatforming of applications, faster access to new functionality, and the ability to better align spending with usage[1]."

Akhilesh Tripathi, Global Head, Digitate, said: "With ever increasing volumes and velocity of data in the enterprise; it's becoming impossible to detect, diagnose and resolve critical issues quickly. ignio helps IT teams solve pain points, maneuver through the chaos, identify the source of problems and fix them autonomously. With the ignio SaaS offering, enterprises can avail a secure operations with scale and accommodate their growing needs leading to faster return on investments."
