TCS Recognized by Reactions as the "Best Technology Provider" in North America

TCS Earns Top Ranking for its Ongoing Commitment to Technology Innovation and Enabling Insurers to Meet Today's Business Demands

NEW YORK | MUMBAI, September 26, 2014: Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS), a leading IT services, consulting and business solutions organization, announced today that it is the winner of the "Best Technology Provider" award from Reactions, a leading insurance publication covering the global insurance and reinsurance market. The award recognizes TCS for its ongoing commitment to delivering innovative technology solutions and comprehensive business transformation programs for its clients, and was presented at the 9th annual North America Reactions' Awards Dinner.

The North America Reactions' Awards annually recognize accomplishments in insurance, reinsurance and insurance brokerage across a variety of individual and company-wide arenas in the North American and Bermudian markets. Winners are nominated through an online survey of Reactions readers, which includes some of the industry's most senior executives, and then are reviewed, confirmed and ultimately chosen by an editorial group of insurance industry leaders and influencers.

"We are delighted to be recognized by Reactions as the 'Best Technology Provider' in 2014," said Suresh Muthuswami, President of Insurance and Healthcare, TCS. "This award is a strong endorsement of TCS' commitment and our unique ability to drive transformation of insurers into customer-centric and agile organizations. TCS has successfully delivered numerous large and complex policy and claims transformation programs and is currently enabling 30+ global insurers with their digital transformation. These clients are taking advantage of TCS' investments in digital, domain and innovation."

In publication since 1981, Reactions is a monthly online and print publication that provides global coverage of the insurance and reinsurance industries on topics such as property-catastrophe, casualty/liability, specialty lines, and risk management. The North America Reactions' Awards Dinner was held on Tuesday, September 23rd at Cipriani Club 55 in New York City.
