TCS China ranked among "2012 Top 10 Global Service Providers in China"

Mumbai, June 28, 2012: Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS), a leading IT services, consulting and business solutions organization, announced that its China subsidiary Tata Consultancy Services (China) Co. Ltd. has been listed among the "2012 Top 10 Global Service Provider in China". The award was presented by the China Council for International Investment Promotion (CCIIP) in a high profile award ceremony held recently in Nanjing, China. The recognition, endorsed by leading global analysts firms Gartner and IDC identified TCS as one among the best Global Service Providers in China.

"It is a great honor for TCS to be recognized with this prestigious award and to be placed amongst the leading service providers in China," said Qiqi Dong, CEO, TCS China. "We will continue to strengthen relationships with our local and multinational customers, drive innovation and, as exemplified by our recent inauguration of TCS China's sixth delivery center at Dalian, we will keep building the right infrastructure to help drive China's full potential as a global player in IT services, outsourcing and consulting."

The CCIIP, in tandem with China's 1000-100-10 initiative, has partnered with leading analyst firms IDC and Garner to launch a campaign aimed at identifying top global and domestic service outsourcing companies in China. The campaign led by a group of outsourcing experts aims at selecting 10 domestic service outsourcing companies, 100 promising companies, and 10 MNC service providers on the basis of performance.
