Sirs,

Sub: Update on the strike announced by the Workers' Union

In continuation of our letter dated August 22, 2025 informing about the receipt of a strike notice from the Workers Union, we further inform that, the Company approached the Nelamangala Court with an application to obtain an injunction to restrain the Workers' Union from obstructing operations & ensuing smooth passage of employees and vehicles carrying goods from entering and leaving the factory premises during a strike or agitation.

The Honorable Additional Civil Judge & JMFC at Nelamangala Court by its order dated August 28, 2025 received by the Company on September 1, 2025, has granted a temporary injunction order restraining the Workers Union, during a strike, from obstructing the Company, its directors, executives, staffs, workmen, vehicles, vehicles carrying with finished goods and raw materials etc., from entering into and leaving from the factory gates of the Company and are permitted to agitate within beyond 25 meters from the factory gates until the date of next hearing i.e. September 24, 2025.

This injunction provides the Company with relief from disruptions by the union and ensures the uninterrupted operation of the Company's business during this period.

Kindly take the above on record.

Thanking You,
For TD Power Systems Limited
