IMPORTANT PUBLIC NOTIFICATION

Tech Mahindra busts fake offer racket

Delhi – October 28, 2013 – Tech Mahindra, a specialist provider of connected solutions to the connected world and enabling future digital enterprises, in collaboration with the police authorities busted a fake jobs racket that was issuing fake offer letters to aspiring candidates for jobs at Tech Mahindra, while collecting cash amount ranging between INR 9000 to INR 2 lakh each. Tech Mahindra acted on this based on a whistleblower complaint and promptly reported it to the local police and assisted in setting a trap and nabbing the culprits.

"Tech Mahindra is committed to high ethical standards of operation and has taken this matter very seriously. We have a zero tolerance policy to any issues that misrepresent our value systems or cause damage to our reputation. Tech Mahindra does not charge any fee or collect any deposit from candidates for any jobs and our hiring is purely based on principles of meritocracy and relevance. I urge all candidates who are approached by third parties demanding cash payments for jobs at Tech Mahindra to immediately report the matter to us at CORPORATEOMBUDSMAN@techmahindra.com or to the local law enforcement authorities," said Rakesh Soni, Chief People Officer, Tech Mahindra.

The following are good indications of a fake job offer letter

- If the email originates from a public or free domain and not from the authorized techmahindra.com domain
- The contact person or email or the letter asks you to deposit cash in any form
- If the interviewing panel does not have a Tech Mahindra ID Card

If you receive any suspicious or fraudulent offers, connect with us
