SWIGGY TO SEPARATELY INVEST ₹75 CR IN UDAAN PARENT FOR ANOTHER 0.4% STAKE

Udaan to buy Swiggy's Lynk for ₹500 cr

FE BUREAU
Bengaluru, September 7

EB2B PLATFORM UDAAN on Monday said it will acquire Lynk Logistics, Swiggy's wholly-owned retail distribution arm, in an all-stock transaction that values the business at ₹500 crore.

Trustroot Internet, Udaan's parent, will issue 166,534 Series R compulsorily convertible preference shares to Swiggy Networks at $314.4 each, or about $52.4 million, in exchange for its entire shareholding in Lynk Logistics, according to disclosures made by Swiggy to exchanges. The transaction will give Swiggy a 2.8% stake in Udaan.

Swiggy will separately invest ₹75 crore of primary equity in Trustroot for another 0.4%, taking its holding to about 3.2%.

At the issue price, the deal values Udaan at about $1.9 billion (approximately ₹17,953 crore). The firm was last valued at about $1.75 billion in its Series E round in January 2024.

DEAL DETAILS

- Udaan's parent, Trustroot Internet, will issue $52.4-million worth shares to Swiggy Network in exchange for its entire shareholding in Lynk
- The transaction, expected to be completed by October 22, 2026, will give Swiggy a 2.8% stake in Udaan
- The business being sold contributed ₹668 crore in FY26 revenue, comprising 2.90% of Swiggy's consolidated revenue

VAIBHAV GUPTA, CO-FOUNDER & CEO, UDAAN

Lynk's acquisition further strengthens our business and expands our presence across consumption markets

The business being sold contributed revenue of ₹668 crore in FY26, or 2.90% of Swiggy's consolidated revenue, and had net assets of ₹500 crore as of March 31, 2026, the disclosures showed. It currently sits within Swiggy Networks and will be transferred to Lynks Logistics, a step-down subsidiary that reported nil revenue and a negative net worth of ₹11 lakh in FY26, before the shares change hands. Swiggy said it expects the transaction to be completed by October 22, 2026.

Swiggy had acquired Lynk in July 2023 for an undisclosed amount, buying out The Ramco Cements and Ramco Industries, in what was then its entry into India's food and grocery retail distribution market. Founded in 2015 by Abhinav Raja and Shekhar Bhende, Lynk works with FMCG brands as an authorised distributor across a network of more than 100,000 retail stores. Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Chennai and Kolkata account for about 75% of its revenue.

For Udaan, Lynk brings brand relationships and retail reach in four metros at a point when it is pushing its own labels. Private labels contribute 15-25% of staples sales across its operating cities, the firm said.

Udaan said revenue grew at a CAGR of about 25% over 10 quarters from Q4 CY23 to Q1 CY26, while contribution margin improved nearly 500 basis points and Ebitda burn fell about 70%. Bengaluru, its largest market, is Ebitda profitable, it added.

"The acquisition of Lynk further strengthens our business and expands our presence across some of India's most important consumption markets," said Vaibhav Gupta, co-founder and CEO, Udaan.

"We are firm believers in the large B2B opportunity that exists in India, and in Udaan's position as the category creator in this space," said Rahul Bothra, CFO, Swiggy, adding that the additional primary capital investment of ₹75 crore reflects Swiggy's continued confidence in the space.

The deal follows Udaan's $160-million recapitalisation in July, comprising fresh equity, new debt and conversion of a portion of its outstanding convertible bonds, backed by Lightspeed Venture Partners, M&G Investments and Moonstone Capital, with about $45 million of private credit from BlackRock.
