Subject: Clarification on Withdrawal of Order Intimation for Civil Contract

Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for your correspondence dated February 15, 2024, concerning the withdrawal of the civil contract order with Kalpataru.

We acknowledge receipt of your clarification mail and appreciate the opportunity to address the situation.

Indeed, as you correctly noted, our initial order for the civil contract with Kalpataru was dated February 12, 2024. Regrettably, following a meticulous review of the terms and conditions. Consequently, in the interest of ensuring a mutually beneficial agreement, we opted to withdraw the order on February 15, 2024.

Please be assured that we are actively exploring alternative options to fulfill our contractual requirements, and we remain committed to resolving this matter expediently and amicably.

Moving forward, we remain committed to upholding the highest standards of professionalism and timely delivery in all our business dealings.

Should you have any further inquiries or require additional clarification, please do not hesitate to reach out to us

We appreciate your attention to this matter.
Thanking you

Yours faithfully,
For Tembo Global Industries Limited
