Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership. Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country. Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company. In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years. A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board. At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak. Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years. Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions. The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMly&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper. This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions. The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations. Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels

total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 25,464 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second PLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed— with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India's textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October.

So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources.

The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed—with the UAE and Australia.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years.

Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership. Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country. Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company. In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years. A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board. At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak. Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years. Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022. The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget.

Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions.

The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMILY&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper.

This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions.

The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations.

Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels passion and commitment in the team that has relentlessly worked on it. The entire credit goes to each one of them who has been involved, to all our present and ex-colleagues who have worked so hard on the campaign. They are the real winners.”

India sent a total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 2,546 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second PLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed— with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

$50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October.

So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources.

The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed—with the UAE and Australia.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years.

Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership.

Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country.

Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company.

In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years.

A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board.

At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak.

Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years.

Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022.

The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget.

Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions.

The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMLY&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper.

This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions.

The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations.

Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels the fire of passion and commitment in the team that has relentlessly worked on it.

The entire credit goes to each one of them who has been involved, to all our present and ex-colleagues who have worked so hard on the campaign.

They are the real winners.” India sent a total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 25,464 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second PLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed— with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October.

So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources.

The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years.

Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership. Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country. Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company. In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years. A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board. At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak. Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years. Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022. The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget.

Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions.

The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations.

Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels

Second PLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed—with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

$50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October.

So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources.

The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years.

Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership.

Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country.

Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company.

In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years.

A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board.

At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak.

Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years.

Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022.

The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget.

Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions.

The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMLY&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper.

This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions.

The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations.

Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels the fire of passion and commitment in the team that has relentlessly worked on it.

The entire credit goes to each one of them who has been involved, to all our present and ex-colleagues who have worked so hard on the campaign. They are the real winners.” India sent a total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 25,464 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second PLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed— with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October.

So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources.

The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years.

Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership. Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country. Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company. In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years. A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board. At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak. Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years. Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022. The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget. Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of

GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions. The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMILY&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper. This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions. The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations. Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels the fire of passion and commitment in the team that has relentlessly worked on it. The entire credit goes to each one of them who has been involved, to all our present and ex-colleagues who have worked so hard on the campaign. They are the real winners.” India sent a total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 2,546 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second PLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed—with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October. So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources. The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership. Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country. Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company. In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years. A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board. At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak. Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years. Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022. The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget. Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of

GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions. The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMILY&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper. This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions. The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations. Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels

total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 2,546 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second PLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed—with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October. So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources. The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022. New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed—with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years. The reporter was in Coimbatore at the invitation of the Union commerce & industry ministry.

Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership.

Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country.

Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company.

In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years.

A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board.

At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak.

Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years.

Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022.

The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget.

Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions.

The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMLY&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper.

This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions.

The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations.

Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels passion and commitment in the team that has relentlessly worked on it.

the fire of

The entire credit goes to each one of them who has been involved, to all our present and ex-colleagues who have worked so hard on the campaign. They are the real winners.”

India sent a total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 25,464 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second KPLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October.

So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources.

The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed—with the UAE and Australia.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years.

Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership.

Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country.

Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company.

In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years.

A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board.

At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak.

Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years.

Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022.

The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget.

Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions.

The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMLY&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper.

This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions.

The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations.

Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels the fire of passion and commitment in the team that has relentlessly worked on it.

The entire credit goes to each one of them who has been involved, to all our present and ex-colleagues who have worked so hard on the campaign. They are the real winners.” India sent a total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 25,464 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second KPLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October.

So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources.

The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed—with the UAE and Australia.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years.

Infosys gives capital return of over ₹ 24,100 crore in FY22

He said the board of directors has recommended the reappointment of Salil Parekh as chief executive officer and managing director of Infosys, for a second term of five years, from July 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027.

“Salil has delivered industry-leading performance for the company, and it is in the interest of Infosys and its stakeholders to secure the continuity and stability of the current leadership.

Salil brings with him a proven track record of driving digital transformation for enterprises, executing business turnarounds, and managing acquisitions successfully,” Nilekani said.

Infosys has sought shareholders’ nod for the re-appointment of Parekh for a period of five years with a massive 88% jump in annual remuneration to ₹79.75 crore — making him one of the highest-paid executives in the country.

Parekh, 58, took home a salary of ₹71.02 crore in the fiscal year ended on March 31, 2022. This included ₹52.33 crore from exercising RSUs (Restricted Stock Units) granted to him earlier. Nilekani voluntarily chose not to receive any remuneration for his services rendered to the company.

In the shareholder notice, the firm justified the steep hike citing industry-leading growth in recent years.

A shareholder recommended that Parekh salary should be higher than those being paid by competitors. Some shareholders asked the company to increase representation of women directors on the company’s board.

At present, Infosys has two women independent directors, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, who is executive director of Biocon, and Chitra Nayak.

Some shareholders asked the management when they can get a bonus as it has not been announced for the last five years.

Nilekani also offered gratitude to Sudha Murty for her 25 years of service at

Infosys Foundation. “On behalf of the CSR Committee of Infosys Limited and the Trustees of the Infosys Foundation, I also record our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Sudha Murty who retired from the office of chairperson of Infosys Foundation on December 31, 2021, after an inspiring 25-year journey of service to the underserved and dedication to social causes,” he said.

GST cess extended till March 31, 2026

“The extension of the levy of Compensation Cess, although expected, will continue to impose a burden on the relevant businesses, especially sectors like automobiles, which actually need to be encouraged as these have a multiplier effect on GDP and employment,” said MS Mani, Partner at Deloitte India.

Given the robust trends for April-May 2022, and the anticipation of sustained healthy momentum of activity, analysts expect CGST inflows in FY23 to overshoot the budget estimate by ₹1.15 trillion. That would also mean about ₹1.3 trillion in extra SGST receipts in aggregate to states, which will cease to receive GST compensation from July 2022.

The Centre is expecting monthly gross GST (CGST and SGST) collections to average ₹1.4-1.5 trillion in FY23 compared with ₹1.2 trillion factored in the Budget.

Saurabh Agarwal, Tax Partner, EY India, said: “The current extension of GST cess cannot be said to be settling the issue of GST compensation between the Centre and states. If states resort to levy of special cess to augment their revenues it would distort the objective of GST, ie one nation one tax.”

India puts up its best show at Cannes with 47 Lions

FCB India’s Chatpat campaign for SOS Children’s Villages of India bagged eight metals, while Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ took home five Lions.

The other two Grand Prix honours went to VMLY&R’s The Killer Pack for Maxx Flash and to Leo Burnett for The Missing Chapter created for P&G’s Whisper.

This year also marked the first time ever that India took home Titanium Lions.

The two campaigns to win a Titanium each were Dentsu Creative’s Unfiltered History Tour and Ogilvy’s ‘Shah Rukh Khan My Ad’ for Cadbury Celebrations.

Commenting on the agency’s performance at Cannes, Amit Wadhwa, CEO India, Dentsu Creative said, “To say this is historic almost seems like an understatement. Also let me add that while we have won what we have, it is also amazing to see all the other agencies from India win big. We are undeniably proud to be associated with a campaign that takes top honours on a global platform. This, indeed, fuels the fire of passion and commitment in the team that has relentlessly worked on it.

The entire credit goes to each one of them who has been involved, to all our present and ex-colleagues who have worked so hard on the campaign. They are the real winners.” India sent a total of 921 entries to the Cannes Lions Awards this year while a total of 25,464 entries came in from 87 countries.

Second PLI scheme for textiles sector

If at all an extension is required, it’s unlikely to be more than a month beyond the September deadline, he said.

New Delhi is in talks for a flurry of FTAs on top of the two trade deals already signed— with the UAE and Australia. These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said

The government is expecting a bumper cotton crop in the next marketing year starting October.

So, it’s mindful of the fact that permitting duty-free cotton imports when new crops arrive in the market may drag down farmers’ earnings, said textile industry sources.

The minister exuded confidence that India and Canada, which have been engaged in negotiations for a free trade agreement (FTA), will firm up an early-harvest deal by the end of 2022.

These FTAs will help drive up India’s textiles and garment exports, which will exceed $50 billion in FY23 from about $44 billion in the last fiscal, the minister said. New Delhi is currently negotiating with the UK, Israel, Canada and the EU for FTAs. The country is aiming to achieve textiles and garment exports of $100 billion annually in the next five years.

मुंबई, दि. २५ (प्रतिनिधी) : शिवसेना नेते एकनाथ शिंदे यांनी विधान परिषदेच्या निवडणुकीनंतर केलेल्या बंडामुळे राज्यातील राजकीय वातावरण चांगलेच तापले आहे. शिवसेना विधिमंडळ पक्षातील बहुतांश आमदार गुवाहाटीत आल्याने आवश्यक संख्याबळ पूर्ण झाले आहे, असा दावा शिवसेनेचे बंडखोर नेते एकनाथ शिंदे यांनी शुक्रवारी केला आहे.

त्यानंतर आता केंद्रीय मंत्री नितीन गडकरी यांनी राज्यातील राजकीय भूकंपावर प्रतिक्रिया दिली आहे.

लवकरच परिस्थिती स्पष्ट होईल, असे सूचक वक्तव्य नितीन गडकरी यांनी केले आहे. आगे आगे देखो होता है क्या असही

गडकरींनी म्हटलं. त्यामुळे आता नितीन गडकरींच्या या वक्तव्याने नवीन चर्चांचा उधाण आले आहे. केंद्रीय मंत्री नितीन गडकरी झी

परिषदेच्या व्यासपीठावरून संवाद साधताना त्यांनी याबाबत भाष्य केले.

दूर होईल. आगे आगे देखो होता है क्या. आजच्या समस्येमध्येच उद्याचे उत्तर लपलेले असते. लवकरच याबाबत सगळ्या

असोत किंवा नसोत संबंध तेच राहतात. राजकारण वेगळे असते,’ असे नितीन गडकरी यांनी म्हटले आहे. त्याचबरोबर माजी पंतप्रधान अटलबिहारी वाजपेयी यांचे स्मरण करून ते म्हणाले की, सरकार येतात आणि जातात, पंतप्रधान येत राहतात, पण हा देश राहिला पाहिजे. देशासाठी काम केले पाहिजे. राज्यात शिवसेनेत सुरू असलेल्या बंडखोरीमागे भाजप असल्याचा आरोप होतोय. त्याबाबत बोलताना गडकरी म्हणाले की, ‘मी राज्यातल्या राजकारणावर जास्त बोलणार नाही. पण एवढं नक्की सांगेन की शिवसेना आणि भाजपा एकत्र आले तर माझ्यासारख्या व्यक्तीला आनंदच होईल.’
