IMF to pressure

graft scandal Agencies WASHINGTON DC

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) plans to engage with Kiev on corruption, the global lender said on Thursday, as a $100 million graft scandal has rocked Vladimir Zelensky's government.

On Monday, Ukraine's National Anti-Corruption (NABU) charged Bureau seven people including Zelensky's former longtime business partner Timur Mindich with kickbacks and embezzlement in the Westernfunded energy sector. Mindich, described in local media as Zelensky's "wallet," fled Ukraine shortly before authorities searched his apartment. The scandal has already led to the dismissal of two government ministers.
