Inspection Scheme Soon to Flag Firms Dodging EPFO

Yogima Seth
 New Delhi: The labour and employment ministry is firming up an inspection scheme to identify establishments that are eligible for coverage under the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) but devise ways to remain outside the ambit of the social security coverage to avoid compliance and financial burden, depriving thousands of workers of social security benefits.
 Currently, establishments with 20 or more employees need to be mandatorily registered with the EPFO for provident fund, pension and insurance benefits. Most establishments keep their declared headcount below 20 to avoid mandatory enrolment under the EPFO. Besides, while workers with wages up to ₹15,000 per month are mandatorily covered under the EPFO schemes, many organisations do not offer coverage to those earning in excess of this limit.

 The plan is to use data from GST, income tax and other government departments for identifying organisations that should be covered under the EPFO.

Financial Inclusion 2.0 Road Map Set for Review this Week

Dheeraj Tiwari
 New Delhi: The finance ministry will review the progress of financial inclusion with banks and stakeholders this week as it firms up the roadmap for Financial Inclusion 2.0. It will also assess the performance of existing schemes, including the Atal Pension Yojana, amid demands to expand coverage under insurance and pension programmes, said officials.
 "There have been demands to increase the coverage amount under the Jan Suraksha schemes, including Atal Pension Yojana. The review will take into account the progress made in these schemes and other parameters, including timely settlement of claims," said one of the officials, who did not wish to be identified.

 In the past, the government has received suggestions to increase the insurance cover under life and accident insurance policies, Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana and Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana, to ₹5 lakh from the existing ₹2 lakh. "There was also a proposal to increase the guaranteed pension amount in Atal Pension Yojana to ₹10,000 per month," said the official.
