Thomas Cook India strengthens Maharashtra footprint with Kolhapur outlet Expands consumer access to 29 locations across the State

Mumbai, March 11, 2026: With a strategic focus on capitalising on the strong and growing travel demand from Maharashtra—one of its key source markets, Thomas Cook (India) Limited, India's leading omnichannel travel services company, has inaugurated its new outlet in Kolhapur. The new outlet expands Thomas Cook India's network to 2 locations in the city and 29 across the State, enhancing access to its comprehensive range of travel services.

Kolhapur, a key commercial hub in southern Maharashtra, is witnessing rising affluence and a growing appetite for premium travel experiences. The new outlet will cater to travellers from Kolhapur and its neighbouring catchments across diverse customer segments—families, couples, Young India's Millennials and GenZ, business travellers and GenS (seniors). Thomas Cook's Kolhapur outlet offers end-to-end travel services: International & Domestic Holidays (Group Tours, Personalised Holidays, Cruises, etc.), Value Added Services like Travel Insurance, etc. Additionally, Thomas Cook's AI booking platform assists customers in planning their personalized vacations in real time by checking availability and making reservations in a matter of minutes.
