Sterling Strengthens Its Himalayan Presence with the Launch of Sterling Nirmaya Dharamshala

- A Celebration-Led Himalayan Retreat in the Kangra Valley
- Sterling's 6th Resort in Himachal Pradesh

Chennai, 27th January 2026: Sterling Holiday Resorts announced the opening of Sterling Nirmaya Dharamshala, a contemporary Himalayan retreat set against sweeping views of the Dhauladhar ranges. The new resort marks Sterling's sixth property in Himachal Pradesh and adds a distinctive dimension to the brand's growing leisure portfolio in North India.

Sterling Nirmaya Dharamshala blends scenic mountain living with a food-and-beverage-led social experience. Perched above the Kangra Valley, the resort offers a relaxed yet vibrant setting for family getaways, intimate celebrations and group gatherings.

The resort features well-appointed rooms and suites, each with a private sit-out, allowing guests to soak in the crisp mountain air and uninterrupted valley views. A rooftop infinity swimming pool and thoughtfully designed common spaces create natural moments for connection.

At the heart of the experience is a lively culinary offering. Mezban, the all-day dining restaurant, serves Indian favourites, Himachali-inspired flavours and global classics, while Ignis, the rooftop bar, hosts sundowners and starlit evenings with panoramic Himalayan views. Summit, a flexible event space, makes the resort well suited for meetings, workshops and intimate celebrations.

Commenting on the launch, Vikram Lalvani, Managing Director & CEO, Sterling Holiday Resorts, said: "Sterling Nirmaya Dharamshala is a strategic addition to our Himachal Pradesh portfolio, strengthening our ability to offer immersive, multi-destination journeys across the state. Dharamshala plays a pivotal role in connecting our presence across Himachal, enabling curated circuits that combine culture, spirituality, leisure and the outdoors, delivered with the consistency of the Sterling experience."

Located minutes from McLeod Ganj, the resort offers easy access to monasteries, markets and outdoor experiences including the Triund trek, Bhagsu Waterfall or take a day-long excursion to Bir-Billing - one of the world's leading paragliding destinations.

Speaking on the association, Nitasha Jamwal – Managing Director of Nirmaya said: “Our vision for Dharamshala was to create a retreat that brings a spectrum of guests from across India, while we offer them refined hospitality in the lap of Himalayas. Partnering with Sterling is natural choice — their deep understanding of India’s leisure segment, regional presence, and ability to blend local character with national scale make them an ideal collaborator. Together, we hope to present Dharamshala not just as a destination, but as a feeling of content and renewal”

With this launch, Sterling continues to strengthen its portfolio of curated leisure destinations, enabling travellers to explore India through connected journeys without compromising on comfort or service standards.
