UAE creates federal authority for ‘commercial gaming’

DUBAI: The United Arab Emirates has created a federal authority to potentially run a national lottery and what it describes as “commercial gaming,” likely a sign that it is on the verge of allowing gambling as major casino operators flock to the Gulf Arab nation. The state-run WAM news agency carried an announcement on Sunday on the creation of the General Commercial Gaming Regulatory Authority, without offering many details about its structure or operations.

ASEAN Summit: Southeast Asia confronts Myanmar crisis

AP / Jakarta

Southeast Asian leaders led by Indonesian host President Joko Widodo are gathering in their final summit this year, besieged by divisive issues with no solutions in sight: Myanmar's deadly civil strife, new flare-ups in the disputed South China Sea, and the longstanding United States-China rivalry.

The Association of Southeast Asian Nations meetings will open Tuesday in the Indonesian capital Jakarta under tight security. The absence of US President Joe Biden, who typically attends, adds to the already somber backdrop of the 10-state bloc's traditional show of unity and group handshakes.

After discussions Tuesday, the ASEAN heads of state would meet Asian and Western counterparts from Wednesday to Thursday, providing a wider venue than the US and China, and their allies, have used for wide-ranging talks on free trade, climate change and global security. It has also become a battleground for their rivalries. Chinese Premier Li Qiang was set to join the meetings, including the 18-member East Asia Summit. There, he would meet U.S. Vice President Kamala Harris - who will fly in lieu of Biden - and Russian Foreign Minister

Sergey Lavrov.

While skipping ASEAN, Biden will fly to Asia for the G20 summit in India.

Marty Natalegawa, a respected former foreign minister of Indonesia, expressed disappointment over Biden's non-appearance, but said such red flags were more alarmingly emblematic of ASEAN's declining relevance.

Defence minister to be replaced, says Zelensky

AP / Kyiv

Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelensky said on Sunday that defence minister Oleksii Reznikov will be replaced this week with Rustem Umerov, a Crimean Tatar lawmaker. Zelensky made the announcement on his official Telegram account, writing that new leadership was needed after Reznikov went through "more than 550 days of full-scale war."

Later in his nightly address, Zelensky said he believes "that the Ministry needs new approaches and different formats of interaction both with the military and with society." "The Verkhovna Rada (parliament) of Ukraine is well acquainted with this person, and Umerov does not require additional introductions. I expect support for this candidacy from parliament," the president told the nation. Umerov, 41, a politician with the opposition Holos party, has served as head of the State Property Fund of Ukraine since September 2022. He was involved in the exchange of prisoners of war, political prisoners, children and civilians, as well as the evacuation of civilians from occupied territories. Umerov was also part of the Ukrainian delegation in negotiations with Russia over the UN-backed grain deal.

Reznikov's removal comes after a scandal around the Ministry of Defense's procurement of military jackets. In August, Ukrainian investigative journalists reported that the materials were purchased at a price three times higher than normal and that instead of winter jackets, summer ones were ordered. In the customs documents from the supplier, the jackets were priced at $29 per unit, but the Ministry of Defense paid $86 per unit.

Reznikov denied the allegations during a news conference last week.

US President Joe Biden told reporters in Delaware on Sunday that he was aware Zelensky had replaced his defense chief. Asked if he had any comment, Biden said, "Not publicly." The US Department of Defense also declined to comment.

Russia proposes jt naval drills with N Korea, China

AP / Seoul

Russia has likely proposed that North Korea participate in three-way naval exercises with China, according to a lawmaker who attended a closed-door briefing with the director of South Korea's top spy agency on Monday.

The briefing came days after Russia's Ambassador to North Korea, Alexander Matsegora, told Russian media that including North Korea in joint military drills between Russia and China "seems appropriate."
