Commenting on the above development, Shiraz Ibrahim, Managing Director of Transteel Seating Technologies Ltd. said, “We are thrilled to announce our latest milestone—securing Grant Thornton, one of India’s largest corporate real estate occupiers, as a prestigious corporate client.

Grant Thornton has ambitious expansion plans, and we are proud to be a part of this journey. This partnership represents a significant opportunity, with Grant Thornton's projected annual furniture requirements exceeding INR 10 crores.

The inaugural order, valued at INR 52,06,599 (inclusive of GST), will support the fit-out of the upcoming Ambuja Eco Centre in Kolkata which will be billed to Stallion Universal India Private Limited.

This achievement underscores our commitment to delivering cost-effective, ergonomic office furniture solutions with unmatched efficiency on a pan-India basis. Furthermore, it reflects the trust clients place in the Transteel brand and the success of its proprietary digital ad-tech sales engine in building a robust sales funnel.”
