PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, August 1

AIR INDIA has decided to allow pilots to fly till they are 65, internal documents of the Tata Group-owned airline show, as it works its fleet expansion plans.

"DGCA (Directorate General of Civil Aviation) allows pilots to fly till the age of 65 years, compared to the Air India retirement age of 58 years. Allowing pilots to fly till the age of 65 is a practice followed by most airlines in the industry," the airline's document dated July 29 stated.

Tata Group-owned Air India is considering buying more than 200 new planes with 70% of them being narrow-bodied aircraft, according to industry sources.

The airline's document said that considering the future expansion plans for its fleet, it is imperative to meet the workforce requirement.

"To meet our requirement, it is proposed to retain our current trained pilots at Air India post-retirement on a contractual basis for five years extendable to 65 years," it mentioned.

It said that a committee comprising officials of human resources department, operations department and flight safety department will be constituted to examine the eligibility of pilots retiring in the next two years.

ARVIND posted a net profit of ₹101.6 crore for the April-June quarter against a net loss of ₹11.42 crore in the corresponding quarter last year.

The company's sales rose 64.9% year-on-year (y-o-y) during the quarter to ₹2,35.2 crore on the back of improved demand. Operating margins also improved 170 basis points to 9.4%. However, margins could have risen more had it not been for the 55% y-o-y increase in total expenses during the quarter to ₹2,234.6.

The total expenses grew majorly because of high raw material costs

Total expenses grew majorly because of high raw material costs during the quarter, which rose 82% y-o-y due to high cotton prices. The company said that cotton prices have now started declining and should translate into some softening of retail prices, and help support demand.

The company expects Q2 to be marginally muted compared to Q1 and it will depend on the recessionary global markets and commodity prices going ahead.
