

India's largest flexible packaging company Uflex is perfectly aligned with Government's mission of 'Make In India'

India's largest flexible packaging company Uflex Limited has earned an irreproachable position owing to its non-compromising approach of providing the best end to end flexible packaging solutions at the most effective price coordinates world over.

Uflex came into existence in 1983 and revolutionarized the way products were packaged. Small shampoo sachets that brought a rather expensive product within a common man's reach back in the 80's have been the real transition in the packaging industry. With time Uflex grew from strength to strength to become synonymous with the flexible packaging industry world over. Today the company enjoys a formidable market presence in more than 140 countries with clients like P&G, PepsiCo; Tata Global; Mondelez, L' Oreal, Britannia, Haldiram, Amul, Kimberly Clark, Ferro Rocher, Perfetti, GSK, Nestle, Agrotech Foods, Coca Cola, Wrigley, Johnson & Johnson among others.

Uflex as a true Indian Corporate Citizen strongly supports Government's mission of 'Make In India'. Uflex has State-of-the-art manufacturing facilities at Noida, Jammu and Malanpur. Next in the block would be a first of its kind 'Aseptic Packaging Plant' that the Company is in the process of setting up at Sanand in Gujarat with a Capex of INR 580 crores in the first phase. The plant will be operational by April 2017 and employ around 250 people in the first phase. Completion of all the phases of the project will require a total investment of about INR 1500 crores and will provide employment to approximately 3000 people. 90% of the output from this factory will cater to the domestic demand.

Uflex is a benchmark in itself in terms of offering superior packaging solutions with unmatched aesthetics, enhanced barrier properties, easy functionality, increased shelf life, eco-friendliness and anti-counterfeiting features. Uflex's unparalleled differentiating edge on account of its commitment for Quick and Just in Time Deliveries; Efficient Service and the Ability to cater to any size of order world over has won it several laurels not only in India but across the world as well.
