8. In line with the Applicant Company's intent of premiumising the brand offering and to prioritize the focus on national brands, it has decided to hive-off the Transferred Undertaking to Enrica. Enrica would acquire a fully operational unit with established processes and employees, and would thereby continue the production of the products which have an existing successful market. The transfer will provide opportunities for flexibility of fund raising capability for future growth and expansion and to create a business structure, which is geared to take advantage of possible growth opportunities.

The Applicant Company has entered into a Master Sale Agreement ('MSA') to record the arrangement for hive-off of the business pertaining to Poonamallee Unit through a Scheme for a lump sum cash consideration. In addition, the Company has also entered into a Franchise Agreement with Enrica to bottle its brand(s) and earn royalty income.

9. The Applicant Company and Enrica post transfer and vesting of the Transferred Undertaking will have better operational prospects including but not limited to efficient management of costs, resources, better maintenance of the manufacturing facilities and improved administrative control of the Transferred Undertaking. The businesses and activities of the respective companies will be carried on more economically, conveniently and advantageously under the proposed Scheme and the same will have beneficial results for the said companies, their shareholders, stakeholders and all concerned.

10. The Scheme would not be prejudicial to the interests of the shareholders or creditors (secured and unsecured), if any, of either of the companies. There is no likelihood that any secured or unsecured creditor of either of the companies would lose or be prejudiced as a result of the Scheme being passed nor are their rights sought to be modified in any manner. Hence, the transfer of the Transferred Undertaking of the Transferor Company to the Transferee Company pursuant to the proposed Scheme will not cast any additional burden on the shareholders or creditors of the Transferor Company or the Transferee Company, nor will it affect the interest of any of the shareholders or creditors, as post arrangement, the assets of the Transferor Company will be far in excess of the liabilities and sufficient to discharge the liabilities.

11. Hence, the Scheme is proposed to hive-off the Transferred Undertaking of the Applicant Company into Enrica by way of a slump sale on a going concern basis. The same would be in the interest of the Applicant Company and its shareholders and creditors. The hive-off of the Transferred Undertaking of the Applicant Company into Enrica on a going concern basis is proposed under the provisions of Sections 391 to 394 of the Companies Act, 1956, and the same, if approved and sanctioned by this Hon'ble Court and also approved and sanctioned by the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Madras, within which the registered office of the Transferee Company is situated, will take effect from the Appointed Date i.e., April 1, 2013.
