UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Mr. Ramachandran, Director and Chairman, M/s. Omshakthy Agencies (Madras) Private Limited, submitted that he has not deposited Rs.90 crores, the amount which was required to be deposited by 31st March 2018 as per order dated 16.02.2018 passed by this Court.

In view of the aforesaid, the two MOUs dated 29.11.2017 entered into between Mr. Ramachandran and the petitioner no.3-company stand cancelled.

As Mr. Ramachandran has wasted the time of this court and diverted the proceedings to some extent, we impose cost of Rs.75,00,000/- (Rupees seventy five lac) to be deposited before the Registry of this Court on or before 16th April 2018. Be it noted, if the said amount is not deposited, coercive steps shall be taken against Mr. Ramachandran.

Mr. Ranjit Kumar, learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the company, namely, Unitech Power Transmission Ltd. is being bought over by Sterling Wilson, a Shapoorji Pallonji Group Company for an approximate sum of Rs.110 crores. Mr. Ranjit Kumar would further submit that the said company does not intend to be involved in the litigation but it has no objection to deposit the consideration amount before the Registry of this Court in this case so that it is assured of the transfer of the shares of the holding company upon completion of the formalities.

In view of the aforesaid, let the said company – Sterling Wilson (a Shapoorji Pallonji Group Company) deposit the total consideration amount on or before 11th May 2018 before the Registry of this Court.

We may hasten to clarify, as the suggestion has been given from the side of petitioner no.3, we will not hold Sterling Wilson (a Shapoorji Pallonji Group Company) responsible for anything.

It is also submitted by Mr. Ranjit Kumar that in respect of a parcel of land admeasuring 26 acres in Devanahalli, Bangaluru two purchasers, namely, Mr. Raghavendra K., Designated Partner, M/s. Devas Global Services LLP; and Mr. Naresh Kumar Kempanna are prepared to purchase 11 acres, out of the 26 acres, for a sum of Rs.40 crores.

Let the abovementioned two purchasers deposit Rs.40 crores by 11th May 2018 before the Registry of this court whereafter they shall be entitled for transfer of the land in their favour.

As we have permitted the abovementioned two purchasers to deposit the amount before this Court, orders passed by this Court on 30.10.2017 and 12.03.2018 enabling the petitioners to negotiate, stand modified only as far as the aforesaid arrangement in respect of the above two properties is concerned.

We have also been apprised that National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC), in Appeal Execution No.100 of 2017 etc., vide order dated 20.03.2018, has directed Land Acquisition Officer, Urban Estate, Haryana (Gurgaon) to deposit Rs.35,96,64,645/- (Rupees thirty five crore ninety six lac sixty four thousand six hundred forty five) payable to petitioner no.3.

It is further submitted by Mr. Ranjit Kumar that the beneficiaries of the orders by NCDRC are also on the portal created by Mr. Pawan Shree Agrawal, learned amicus curiae shall verify the names to be supplied by Mr. Bhandari, learned counsel assisting Mr. Ranjit Kumar.

In the meantime, if the amount is deposited before the NCDRC, it shall not disburse the amount as we may, in the eventuality, pass an order for transferring the amount so that there can be holistic distribution.

Mr. Pawan Shree Agrawal, learned amicus curiae submits that he may be allowed to close the portal. Permission is granted. The portal may be closed w.e.f. 12.04.2018. However, keeping the portal open till then does not mean that the registered flat buyers can exercise option of change in choice already recorded.

It is also submitted by Mr. Ranjit Kumar that a list of unencumbered properties has been produced and a copy thereof has been handed over to Mr. Pawan Shree Agrawal. He may open the same and discuss with Mr. Bhandari before issuing a Public Notice, inviting objections for sale, in requisite number of local and national newspapers which have wide circulation. The expenses of publication shall be borne by petitioner no.3 and its subsidiary companies. Additionally, the public notice be displayed on the portal (online) created by Mr. Pawan Shree Agrawal for inviting objections for sale.

As an interim protection, it is directed that no other court or authority shall take any coercive steps against petitioner no.3 and its subsidiary companies except for production of petitioner nos.1 and 2 in the concerned criminal courts.

Crl.M.P.No.51484 of 2018

This is an application for extension of time filed on behalf of Pioneer Urban Land and Infrastructure Limited and others.

It is submitted by Mr. C.A. Sundaram, learned senior counsel that out of the amount of Rs.40 crores, as directed to be deposited vide order dated 05.03.2018, an amount of Rs.10 crores has been deposited and seeks time till end of April 2018 to deposit the balance amount of Rs.30 crores. The prayer stands allowed. We are sure, no further extension shall be sought.

Crl.M.P. stands disposed of accordingly.

Crl.M.P.No.51299 of 2018

Let a copy of this application be served on Mr. S. Udaya Kumar Sagar, Standing Counsel for State of Telangana.

Crl.M.P.No.41514 of 2018
in Crl.M.P.No.82341 of 2017
in S.L.P.(Crl.)No.5978-5979 of 2017

Mr. Kohli, learned counsel shall obtain instructions in the matter from the applicant, as suggested by this Court.

S.L.P.(Crl.)Nos.5978-5979 of 2017
and connected applications

Let the matter be listed on Wednesday, the 02nd May 2018.

In the meantime, the amount which has already been deposited and is lying with the Registry, shall be invested in a short term Fixed Deposit with a nationalised bank.
