No water in MU girls’ hostel: HC takes up issue

Urvi Mahajani
MUMBAI

The Bombay High Court on Monday took suo motu cognisance of reports highlighting an acute water shortage at the University of Mumbai’s (MU) Madam Cama Girls’ Hostel in Churchgate, with inmates reportedly facing the problem for over 15 days.

A bench of Acting Chief Justice Ravindra Ghuge and Justice Gautam Ankhad initiated the proceedings after taking note of reports published in newspapers about the lack of basic facilities at the hostel.

“This is a serious issue,” the bench observed while requesting advocate Yugandhara Khanvilkar to assist the court as amicus curiae.

According to the reports, the hostel has been receiving an inadequate water supply. The university has reportedly attributed it to ongoing civic work being carried out by the BMC near the hostel premises.

Directing the Registry to register the matter as a suo motu public interest litigation, the bench asked Khanvilkar to prepare a petition setting out the issue within two weeks and serve copies of the memo to the authorities concerned. This would enable the departments involved to obtain instructions and place their response before the court.

The court has posted the matter for further hearing on Sept 2.

TOWER UP | Redevelopment is drawing celebrities, HNIs and major developers; blocks priced up to ₹30 cr/unit are replacing bungalows

Bollywood legacy gives way to luxe towers in Bandra

Sweetie Bhagwat
MUMBAI

For decades, Bandra’s residential cachet was written as much in the language of cinema as in real estate – sprawling bungalows, celebrity addresses and leafy enclaves that became synonymous with Bollywood. That legacy is now being recast vertically, as ageing homes and low-rise buildings give way to luxury towers aimed at celebrities, high-net-worth individuals (HNIs), business owners and affluent professionals. With developable land scarce, apartments and penthouses in Bandra West command around ₹5 crore to ₹30 crore, while rare bungalows and villas fetch ₹15 crore to ₹50 crore.

Redevelopment has become central to this transformation, allowing developers to create premium inventory in established neighbourhoods where vacant land is virtually unavailable. Redeveloped properties typically command ₹4 crore to ₹15 crore, depending on the project and location.

The shift is particularly visible at Pali Hill, where The Legend by Ashar is being developed at the site associated with late actor Dilip Kumar. The project comprises 19 luxury residences across three configurations, starting at about 3,200 sq ft. It initially commanded around ₹1.55 lakh-₹1.80 lakh per sq ft, while transactions in 2026 have averaged about ₹1.65 lakh per sq ft. A penthouse transaction touched ₹1.81 lakh per sq ft. Ashar Group said the project has recorded more than ₹500 crore in sales, including demand from HNIs and institutional buyers.

Among Bandra’s key micro-markets, Pali Hill remains a trophy address because of its relatively quiet, green surroundings, larger plots and celebrity presence. Bandstand commands a premium for its seafront setting, promenade and celebrity homes. Carter Road combines premium housing with a seafront promenade, restaurants and entertainment, drawing younger affluent buyers and families.

Hiranandani, Rustomjee, DLH, Adani Realty and Lotus Group are pursuing or have undertaken marquee redevelopment opportunities in the wider Bandra market. Mukesh Singh, Chief of Sales – Rustomjee Group, said the micro-market stood out for its “vibrant lifestyle, seamless connectivity” and scarcity of well-located land.

Bandra Reclamation is also set for a major transformation, with Adani Realty undertaking an approximately 24-acre mixed-use project along the Bandra-Worli Sea Link flyover. Envisaged with luxury residences, commercial offices, retail and leisure amenities, it has an estimated development potential of around 45 lakh sq ft and investment of approximately ₹30,000 crore. The sea-facing development overlooking Mahim Bay is expected to be completed by 2034.

Coastal Projects Widen Luxury Corridor

Mumbai’s western coastline is emerging as a broader luxury housing corridor as infrastructure improves accessibility, according to JLL. Ritesh Mehta, senior director, Residential Advisory Services, India, JLL, said improved connectivity was enabling buyers to prioritise “both lifestyle and accessibility”. JLL estimates 75–80 coastal projects, comprising over 250 units worth approximately ₹6,000 crore, are under redevelopment and expected to enter the market over the next eight to nine quarters. The Mumbai Coastal Road has cut Worli-Marine Drive travel time to around 10–15 minutes, while the Versova-Bandra Sea Link is expected to reduce Versova-Bandra travel time to 10–15 minutes.

Dawood’s close aide held at Delhi Airport

Kirti Kesarkar
MIRA-BHAYANDAR

Fugitive gangster Dawood Ibrahim’s aide Akhtar Merchant was held at Delhi Airport on Monday after evading the Mira-Bhayandar Vasai-Virar (MBVV) police for three years after the 2023 Kashmir bakery shooting. Merchant, along with co-accused Pappu Pager, is alleged to be the mastermind of the shooting. According to the investigation, the duo had phoned a local gutkha vendor, Babu, demanding extortion money. When Babu refused to pay, shots were fired at his bakery.

The Kashmiria police filed an FIR in the case, charging the accused with extortion, attempt to murder, criminal conspiracy, and illegal possession of firearms, alongside stringent provisions under the Maharashtra Control of Organised Crime Act (MCOCA).

While the Crime Branch arrested Pappu Pager last year, Merchant remained on the run. Following continuous efforts, the Interpol alerted local authorities about Merchant’s presence overseas. The MBVV crime branch monitored his potential return routes, ultimately apprehending him upon his arrival in Delhi on Monday.

The police are preparing to produce Merchant before a local court after obtaining a transit remand. Once brought to the jurisdiction, the Kashmiria police and crime branch will subject him to intense interrogation, which is expected to yield key insights into the shooting, the extortion racket, and his broader underworld connections.

The case dates back to Oct 13, 2023, when an armed assailant entered an outlet of International Baking Company in Kashmiria and attempted to open fire, but the weapon malfunctioned, allowing the intended target to escape unharmed. The attacker fled the spot after the failed shooting bid, which was captured on CCTV. Police subsequently arrested alleged shooter Akbar Ali Shafique Shaikh and investigated the case as an organised crime conspiracy. In March this year, the crime branch arrested Nisar Ahmad Sheikh, alias Pappu Pager, an alleged key accused on the run since the incident.

Dharavi cops bust child selling chain, rescue 18-mth-old

Avadhut Kharade
MUMBAI

An 18-month-old boy who was allegedly sold multiple times through a child trafficking network was rescued from Tamil Nadu after Dharavi police traced the chain of transactions and arrested five people.

Police said the child was initially sold by a Dharavi couple for ₹105 lakh before being passed through several intermediaries. He was eventually allegedly sold for ₹4.80 lakh to a childless couple in Tamil Nadu.

The case came to light after Sunny Singh, 39, a Goregaon-based security guard, was told on Aug 6 that his sister’s son had suffered a head injury after a fall and was admitted to Sion Hospital. When Singh reached the hospital, he could not find his sister, her husband or the child.

The couple later allegedly told Singh that the boy had died. However, two days later, on Aug 8, Singh’s sister on persuasion allegedly admitted that the child had been sold to Rani alias Shabnam Khan, 26, on Aug 2 for ₹1.05 lakh.

Singh took the couple to Dharavi police station and lodged a complaint. Police registered a case under Sections 75 and 81 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act and relevant Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita provisions.

Police subsequently arrested Khan, whose interrogation allegedly led them to Deepak More, Zaida Khan, Priya Borhade and Akash Borhade. The child was allegedly sold for ₹3 lakh to Ramaswamy alias Anna, 52, from Karnataka.

Police arrested Anna in Karnataka and, based on his interrogation, traced the child to Kannan Viriyia alias Raju, 39, and Priya Viriya, 38, in Tamil Nadu, from where he was rescued safely in an inter-state mission.
