Sirs,

Under instructions from my client Thiru S. Krishnan, s/o late S.M. Subramanian, residing at No 27 IV cross, Tagore Nagar, Lawspet, Pondicherry - 605 008, we hereby issue the following notice to both of you.

1. Our client states that his father Shri. S.M. Subramanian, advocate by profession, during his life time, invested lakhs of rupees in the shares of the first of you - company herein and he was holding and owning about 2000 equity shares, either in his name and /or in joint names with his family members.
2. Our client further states that his beloved father died intestate on 11.11.2006 at Thippurajapuram, Kumbakonam and our client informed the first of you - company herein, through his letter dated 18.08.2018 enclosing his father's death certificate and my client's identity certificate and residence proof and requested the first of you – company herein to disclose the status and details of the shares held in the name of my client's deceased father, individually and jointly.

3. Our client also states that he received a letter dated 10.09.2018 from the second of you herein acknowledging receipt of our client's letter dated 18.08.2018 and informed our client that his father was holding shares (Folio No.0050043) jointly with S. Lakshmi, who is none other than the mother of our client and the wife/widow of our client's father, the said deceased Shri. S.M. Subramanian, without disclosing the number of shares held by his deceased father to our client, though he is the son and legal heir of the deceased, with instructions to furnish a request letter duly signed by the registered joint holder or to update the status of the registered joint shares holder to enable the second of you herein to share the procedure for name deletion.
4. Our client states that he once again requested the second of you herein to inform the number of shares standing in the name of his deceased father jointly with his mother and for the procedure for deletion of name by a letter dated 04.03.2019.
5. Our client also states that he informed the second of you herein that he came to know from the accounts book of his deceased father that there are 2000 equity shares of the first of you herein standing in the name of his deceased father and in the name of our client jointly and once again requested the second of you herein to inform the number of shares held by his deceased father individually and jointly, the Folio No. and the procedures for deletion of name.

6. Our client further states that the second of you herein informed our client that his deceased father was holding 500 shares under Folio No.0050027 and 500 shares under Folio No.0050168 jointly with our client and indicated the procedure of deletion of name through the letters dated 18.05.2019.
7. Our client states that after protracted and dilatorily behavior and correspondence on the part of the second of you herein, the second of you herein issued a duplicate share certificate in the joint names of our client and his deceased father and finally informed our client that the second of you herein had completed the process of issuing the new share certificate and assured that the share certificate, after process for further transaction, will be dispatched to our client within the stipulated period by the letters dated 23.12.2019.
8. Our client states that he has come to know from the letters dated 30.12.2019 that the second of you herein has also be communicating with some other person to an address at Thippurajapuram, Kumbakonam, for the reasons best known to the second of you herein.
9. Our client states that though he was issued with duplicate share certificate for 1000 equity shares under 2 Folios in the joint name of our client and his deceased father, the second of you herein had not complied with the request of our client for name deletion for which he had also submitted the documents requested by the second of you herein.
10. Our client further states that the second of you herein knowing that the original share certificate could not be traced and produced and having issued share certificates in duplicate wantonly, mechanically, without application of mind and arbitrarily demanded the original share certificate through the letters dated 29.01.2020, 06.03.2020 and 24.08.2020 issued by the second of you herein in spite of several requests from our client.

11. My client also states that till date the second of you herein has not disclosed the full, complete and correct details of the number of shares in the name of my client's deceased father, individually and jointly.

12. Hence I hereby call upon both of you herein (a) to furnish, inform and disclose the complete, full and correct number of shares held by our client's deceased father, individually and jointly, without suppression of facts and (b) carryout deletion of the name of the deceased father of our client in the share certificate in duplicate under the 2 Folios of 500 shares each, within 30 days from the receipt of this notice, failing compliances of which our client will be constrained to take appropriate legal action at your costs and risks of both of you herein.
