	the competent authority. Based on the prevailing law, legal advice and Company's judgement, the Company expects a favourable outcome against the order. The Company does not foresee any material financial impact on account of this order issued by the Assistant Commissioner of Income tax
Reason of Delay in intimation	Company was in the process of thoroughly evaluating the order issued by the Office of the Assistant Commissioner of Income tax. During this period, we were actively consulting with our advisors to assess the implications and determine an appropriate course of action. Upon completion of this internal assessment and once the necessary details were made available to the concerned officer, the information was promptly disclosed to the stock exchange. This sequence of events resulted in the delay in disclosure.
