Dear Sir,

Sub: News Clarification sought by the Exchange

Ref: Your email dated 7th November, 2017

We refer to your email seeking clarification on the news item appearing in the Indian Express dated November 06, 2017, titled "Biggest data leak reveals trails of Indian Corporates in global secret tax havens".

We are shocked to see the name of the Company in the captioned news article. The Company and all its officials are law abiding person(s) and undertakes all business(es) within the legal framework of India or the host country in which it operates its business. The Company conducts its business in compliance of all the applicable laws and subject to all due diligences.

The Company hereby deny all the allegations made in the news article. The Company also denies any wrong doings as alleged in the news article.

The Company has been fully compliant with the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, ("SEBI LODR") including the provisions with regards to dissemination of corporate information/ events, which could have a bearing on the operation/performance of the Company to the Stock Exchanges.

We once again assure you that the Company has been and will be fully compliant with the provisions of the SEBI LODR, including the provisions with regards to dissemination of corporate information/events, which could have a bearing on the operation/performance of the Company.

Thanking you,

Yours truly,

For VIDEOCON INDUSTRIES LIMITED
