Sub: TEMPORARY CLOSURE OF OFFICES DUE TO LOCK DOWN UNDER PANDEMIC COVID-19 - REGULATION 30 OF SEBI (LISTING OBLIGATIONS AND DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS) REGULATIONS, 2015.

As known to all of us, presently our Nation along with the most part of the world is passing through public health challenge situation due to Novel Corona virus ('COVID-19'). The prevailing situation has resulted into complete lock down and paralyse of the business activities. Our Company is also not an exception and the situation has affected our operations as well disrupted the business.

We wish to inform that as a responsible corporate of India and further in order to ensure the safety and well being of all stakeholders, the Company has decided to temporarily close down its office so as to adhere with Government directives.

Under the present circumstances, it is difficult to ascertain impact of outbreak of COVID -19 on the business operations of the Company.

Since the Company is into the business segment of broking and financial advisory services, with a view to facilitate its clients and securities trading, the Company has already implemented "Work from Home" policy for its employees so as to operate and manage critical business operations and its functioning. We are closely monitoring the situation and the management of the Company will take appropriate steps in due course of time in line with the Government directives for starting its offices.
