Ref: Regulation 30(3) of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015

Dear Sir/Madam,

In pursuant to Regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, We are pleased to inform you that Company has appointed as General Sales and Service Agency (GSSA) by Cathay Cargo, in order to expand operations and improve cargo connectivity in Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities of India.

The appointment, announced by Cathay Cargo's Regional Head of Cargo for South Asia, Middle East, and Africa, Rajesh Menon, aims to enhance the airline's market presence and logistics efficiency. The collaboration will cover key regional markets, including Ahmedabad, Jaipur, Ludhiana, Allahabad, Amritsar, Lucknow, Kanpur, Cochin, Trivandrum, Coimbatore, Madurai, and Varanasi. Zeal Global Corp will provide cargo sales, marketing, and operational support to facilitate trade and logistics access for businesses.

Rajesh Menon said, "We are pleased to appoint Zeal Global Corp as our new General Sales Agent for our cargo operations in India. Their extensive market expertise and strong network across Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities will play a crucial role in expanding our cargo services and enhancing logistics accessibility for businesses in these cities."

Managing Director and Co-Founder of Zeal Global Corp, Vishal Sharma, said, "Zeal Global Corp is honoured to partner with Cathay Cargo, a renowned global brand in the cargo industry, as we work together to enhance tonnage and revenue by deepening our presence in regional markets."

About Cathay Cargo

From its origins as a small regional freight operator established in 1946, Cathay Pacific Airways has grown to become one of the world's leading combination cargo carriers and has helped to build Hong Kong into the world's busiest air cargo hub. All of Cathay Pacific's cargo operations are grouped under its Cargo unit. At Present Cathay Cargo has its presence in the Asia, Europe and Middle East Region.

In 2023, Cathay announced the rebrand of its cargo business to Cathay Cargo. The change aligns with the airline's overarching brand redesign, and reinforces the existing strong brand association and perceptions held by its customers. The rebrand will connect Cathay Cargo to the master Cathay brand – a premium travel lifestyle brand offering a range of products and services that create more value for customers and partners.

Cathay Cargo currently operates a fleet of 20 Boeing 747 freighters: six 747-400ERFs (Extended Range Freighter) and 14 747-8F freighters. Cathay Cargo also uses cargo space on the Cathay Group's 181 passenger aircraft. In 2022, Cathay Cargo carried more than 1,154,000 tonnes of cargo.

Cathay Cargo operates a dedicated freighter fleet of Boeing 747-8F and 747-400ERF aircraft and uses cargo space on Cathay Group's passenger planes. The company provides a range of services, including Cathay Priority, Cathay Pharma, Cathay Expert, and Cathay Secure. The Cathay Cargo Terminal in Hong Kong holds CEIV certifications for pharma, fresh produce, live animals, and lithium batteries.

Cathay Cargo Terminal at Hong Kong International Airport (HKIA) commenced operations on 21 February 2013. The HK$5.9 billion facility is one of the biggest and most sophisticated terminals in the world, providing additional air cargo handling capacity and facilities that help to further reinforce Hong Kong's position as the world's premier international airfreight hub.

The airline's wholly owned subsidiary, Cathay Pacific Services Ltd (CPSL), was awarded a franchise to invest in, design, construct and operate the new air cargo terminal at HKIA under a 20-year agreement. The new terminal has been designed for an annual air cargo throughput capacity of 2.6 million tonnes and a common-use facility open to all airline customers.

The Cathay Cargo Terminal sets new standards in operational efficiency, environmental design and service levels.

The Management of Company is confident that this collaboration will help the Company to expand its presence in the Logistics Sector in India and other parts of the Globe, as it has immense potential, and management of the Company are aiming to capitalize this opportunity for the benefit of all our stakeholders.

This is for your kind information and record please.

Thanking You,

Yours faithfully,
