Ration card E-KYC deadline extended until March 31

Bhubaneswar, : The Odisha government has extended the deadline for the e-KYC process for ration cardholders until March 31. The decision comes after many beneficiaries faced difficulties completing the e-KYC due to network issues in several areas. Food Supply Minister Krishna Chandra Patra confirmed the extension of the deadline. Originally, the last date for completing the e-KYC was set for February 15. However, due to network problems at 341 ration distribution centers, many beneficiaries were unable to complete the process. Of these, 230 centers had no network connection, and 111 centers experienced slow connectivity, hindering the e-KYC process. To address these issues, the government will install devices at the affected centers. Currently, 97,77,351 families are enrolled in the Food Security Scheme in the state, with a total of 3,32,33,000 beneficiaries. As of now, 2,99,08,457 individuals have successfully completed the e-KYC process, with 90 percent of the e-KYC already completed.
