Zen Technologies Limited Secures Design Registration for "60 mm Mortar Training Simulator", Reinforcing its Global Leadership in Military Training Technologies

Zen Technologies Limited, a pioneer and global leader in state-of-the-art Defence Training and Anti-Drone solutions, proudly announces the successful design registration of its cutting-edge "60 mm Mortar Training Simulator" under the Designs Act, India. This recognition marks yet another feather in the cap in Zen Technologies' mission to innovate and advance military training technologies, strengthening its position as a leading supplier of realistic combat training solutions worldwide .

The 60 mm Mortar Training Simulator is a cutting-edge system designed to provide an immersive and realistic training experience to the Mortar Crews of an Infantry Rifle Platoon. The simulator addresses critical aspects of 60 mm Mortar training such as target acquisition, simulated firing, and fire corrections, thereby ensuring mortar crews are equipped with the skills necessary for effective use of 60 mm Mortars in the modern-day battlefield. Its innovative design is tailored for operational efficiency, delivering a system that is both ergonomic and user-friendly.

The 60 mm Mortar Training Simulator is the most advanced simulator of its kind providing an exhaustive variety of terrains and battlefield conditions to the trainees. The easy-to-use scenario builder provides instructors with an endless array of situations for setting the training exercises. The simulator's ability to operate indoors makes it an ideal solution for year-round training, irrespective of weather conditions or logistical challenges. It not only reduces the costs associated with live firing exercises but also enhances safety by eliminating the risks involved in conventional training methods.

The design registration underscores Zen Technologies' dedication to indigenous innovation and development, aligning with India's vision of achieving self-reliance in defense technologies. With the extensive use of 60 mm Mortar by militaries worldwide, the 60 mm Mortar Training Simulator is poised for high global acceptance, further solidifying India's position as a reliable and trusted supplier of defense equipment on the international stage.
