UNITY CUP | Club cites earlier instances of the AIFF 'refusing' to compensate for injuries outside the FIFA Intl window

Mohun Bagan pull out 7 players from India squad

PTI KOLKATA

Mohun Bagan Super Giant dealt a major blow to the Indian football team's campaign in the upcoming Unity Cup in London by withdrawing all seven of their players.

The club cited earlier instances of the All India Football Federation (AIFF) refusing to compensate for injuries suffered during matches played outside the FIFA international match window. The seven players, who were part of the 28-member India squad selected by Coach Khalid Jamil for the four-nation tournament, were scheduled to fly to London from Bengaluru on Sunday, where the camp was being held.

India are set to face Jamaica on May 27, while Nigeria take on Zimbabwe on May 26. The winners will contest the final on May 30, with the losing sides playing the third-place playoff. The official FIFA international match window is from June 1 to June 9.

A Mohun Bagan official made the club's position clear, saying the players would only be officially released once the window begins on June 1. "Our stand is very clear, players will be released only from the day the FIFA window starts," the official said.

"We have released the players from our side, but if they travel before that on their own, we will not bear any responsibility if they get injured. From that date, if a player gets injured, FIFA provides compensation. But if a player suffers an injury before that, there is no protection. Earlier, in the cases of Subhashish Bose and Ashique Kuruniyan, the federation did not compensate us in any manner."

The seven Mohun Bagan players named in the India squad are forwards Liston Colaco and Manvir Singh; midfielders Lalengmawia Ralte, Sahal Abdul Samad and Anirudh Thapa; defender Abhishek Singh; and goalkeeper Vishal Kaith.

The standoff exposes the growing friction between the club and the AIFF over player welfare. Last year, Bose's injury triggered a row. The club alleged that their captain suffered a serious adductor and groin injury during India's AFC Asian Cup qualifier against Bangladesh.

The AIFF, however, rejected the claim. A similar dispute erupted ahead of the 2023 Asian Games after Kuruniyan suffered an injury.

Top seeds make winning start in All India Chess Masters

The first day's action of the FIDE regulated tournament also saw some young unrated youngsters making their mark, including Devansh Parkar who held Raaghav Agarwal (1660) to a draw while Mikhail Vikram Vora (1447) shared the point against ACM Aarav Singh in a competitive encounter.

Top seeds crash out as Arjun, Rutva set up boys final at Willingdon SC

FPJ News Service MUMBAI

The top two seeds in the girls under-19 category crashed out at different stages of the Yonex Sunrise State U-19 Badminton Selection Tournament at Willingdon SC on Saturday.

The tournament is organised by the Greater Mumbai Badminton Association, promoted by Badminton Gurukul and hosted by Willingdon SC. Top seed Yutika Chavan of Pune went down in a tough quarter-final encounter against seventh seed Nishika Gokhe of Nagpur.

Gokhe showed enough energy and grit to rally from the loss of the first game and defeat Chavan 18-21, 21-19, 21-17. Gokhe then returned to the court after an hour and a half of rest to defeat Mumbai Suburban's Ketaki Thite 22-20, 21-14 in the semi-finals. She will take on unseeded Yashwi Patel of Pune for the title. Patel outplayed second seed Ridheema Sarpate of Nagpur

Nishika Gokhe

21-18, 21-18 in straight games in the other semi-final.

There were no such hiccups in the boys under-19 category as the top two seeds played true to their rankings to set up a title clash. Top seed Arjun Aluguvelli of Mumbai Suburban ended the fine run of Pune's Aayush Adey, winning a close encounter 24-22, 25-23.

Second seed Rutva Sajwan of Nagpur had to dig deep to quell the challenge from Raigad's Tanay Mehandale 21-17, 9-21, 21-15 in the other semi-final.

ISL 26-27

Uncertainty forces clubs to review commitment

PTI NEW DELHI

Several Indian Super League (ISL) clubs have hinted that they are unsure of featuring in the 2026-27 season due to the continued uncertainty surrounding the domestic top-tier competition, saying they would "review the extent of their commitment to the league beyond the current season".

The ISL clubs had a meeting with the All India Football Federation top brass on Friday in Kolkata ahead of Saturday's Special General Body Meeting of the national body at the eastern metropolis. The AIFF and the clubs have been at loggerheads on having a commercial partner for the ISL.

London-based Genius Sports had emerged as the highest bidder in March, promising Rs2129 crore annually for the next 15+5 years, starting from the 2026-27 season. But the ISL clubs have proposed a different model.

"They want to keep 90% of the "economic interest in the league structure" and the AIFF the rest. They also want the highest bidders, Genius Sports, to stay as the league's data and technology partner only.

"With deep concern and disappointment, the clubs of the Indian Super League wish to state that, given the continued uncertainty surrounding professional football in India, we are now compelled to review the extent of our commitment to the league beyond the current season," said a joint statement posted on social media by the majority of the ISL clubs.

"Our clubs have consistently invested in Indian football, often in difficult and uncertain circumstances, and remain deeply committed to its future. However, the continued absence of structural certainty, commercial clarity and long-term visibility has made it difficult to justify the financial and operational commitments required to compete sustainably."

The just-concluded ISL, which was won by East Bengal, had 14 clubs. Mohammedan Sporting will be relegated after finishing in the bottom while Diamond Harbour will be promoted after winning the second-tier Indian Football League.

The clubs urged the AIFF to work collaboratively towards a framework that is sustainable, inclusive and built with all stakeholders in mind. "Indian football has the foundation to be far greater than it is today. It is therefore disappointing that those who have built, funded, promoted and sustained the league continue to face uncertainty over the very structure," the statement read.
