Kia India Carens Clavis EV Crosses 1,100+ Units

Ahmedabad, Kia India, one of the country's leading mass-premium automakers, today announced that its Carens Clavis EV has crossed 1,100+ units deployed in corporate fleets since its launch in July 2025, underlining the model's growing role in India's shift towards cleaner, more efficient business transportation. Adding to this momentum, Kia India today announced a 100-unit Carens Clavis EV fleet deployment for Refex Mobility, with the first lot handed over at a ceremony held in the presence of Kia India leadership. Kia India's approach to electrification extends beyond introducing EV products to building an ecosystem that makes electric mobility more practical and accessible. The Carens Clavis EV, with its combination of space, technology, comfort and electric efficiency, is well suited to the evolving requirements of corporate and fleet mobility. Kia's broader EV ecosystem, including charging solutions and after-sales support, further supports customers in making the transition to electric mobility. The collaboration with Refex Mobility brings together Kia India's electric mobility capabilities with Refex's fleet expertise, enabling organizations to integrate EVs into their everyday mobility requirements.
