Dear Sirs,

Sub: Petroleum product pipeline fire at Vasco-da-Gama, Goa

With reference to above captioned matter, we would like to inform you that a major fire broke out due to leak in pipeline carrying feedstock on 19th August, 2011 near Mangor Hill at Vasco. The same occurred due to excavation work being carried out by the contractor of National Highway Authority of India which damaged the underground naphtha pipeline, owned by Joint Venture of the Company namely; Zuari Indian Oiltanking Limited (ZIOL). The cross country pipeline of 14 kms. length from the Mormugao Port to the Terminal of ZIOL carries petroleum products apart from Naphtha.

In view of the accident, there may be impact on feedstock supplies to the Company and consequently, production of Urea at our facility.

This is in compliance with Clause 36 of the Listing Agreement.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
For ZUARI INDUSTRIES LIMITED
