

Accelya voted as 'IT Company of the Year' for 2014

Barcelona, Mumbai, 11th March, 2014: Accelya, the leading provider of financial and business intelligence solutions to the Airline industry, has won the IT Company of the Year 2014 at the Air Transport News Awards ceremony hosted in Istanbul on 9th March 2014.

The Award was based on votes cast by airline executives and evaluation by panel of industry experts, chaired by former Secretary General of the Association of European Airlines Ulrich Schulte-Strathaus. The key parameters to judge the winner included the most influential leader, best financial performance during last year, achievements during the last year, new products launched, social responsibility & contribution to society and the most innovative & entrepreneurial organisation.

Air Transport News Awards are conducted annually and are the only international prizes that award all the main categories of the air transport industry.

Dr. Kostas Iatrou, Managing Director of Air Transport News stated that, "Air Transport News honours for the third consecutive year the leader companies in the major categories of the air transport industry elected based on a democratic procedure. I want to congratulate all the winners for their achievement."

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Philippe Lesueur, Chairman, Accelya Group said, "We are thrilled to be voted as the 'IT Company of the Year'. I would like to thank all our customers for their support. This award is a testament to the value delivered by Accelya and its employees to the airline industry."
