Provided the restriction in 4 (i) above shall not apply to:

- i. a transaction that is an off-market inter-se transfer between Promoters who were in possession of the same UPSI without being in breach of these Rules and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision; and
- ii. Trades pursuant to a Trading Plan set up in accordance with these Rules.

5. Trading Window

- i. The Compliance Officer shall notify a 'trading window' during which the Designated Persons may Trade in the Company's securities after securing pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in accordance with these Rules.
- ii. Designated Persons shall not Trade in the Company's securities when the trading window is closed.
- iii. The trading window shall generally be closed for all Insiders between the sixteenth day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after disclosure of such financial results.
- iv. Additionally, the trading window shall be closed in particular for a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons and their immediate relatives, when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI, for such periods as determined by the Compliance Officer.
- v. The trading window may be re-opened after closure, not earlier than 48 hours after the UPSI in question becomes generally available.
- vi. The trading window shall be applicable to persons with fiduciary relationship such as the auditors, consultants etc. who may be in possession of UPSI. The company shall ensure that necessary information on closure of trading window is communicated to such persons.

6. Pre-clearance of Trading

- i. Designated Persons may Trade in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open, after obtaining approval of the Compliance Officer by submitting an application as per Annexure 1 and an undertaking as per Annexure 2.
- ii. The Compliance Officer shall not approve any proposed Trade by Designated Person if the Compliance Officer determines that such Designated Person is in possession of UPSI even though the trading window is open.

- iii. The Compliance Officer may, after being satisfied that the application and undertaking are true and accurate, approve Trading by a Designated Person, on the condition that the Trade so approved shall be executed within seven trading days following the date of approval.
- iv. The Designated Person shall, within two days of the execution of the Trade, submit the details of such Trade to the Compliance Officer as per Annexure 3. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed in the said form.
- v. If the pre-cleared Trade is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the Designated Person must secure pre-clearance of the transaction again.
- vi. A Designated Person who Trades in securities without complying with the pre-clearance procedure as envisaged in these Rules or gives false undertakings and/or makes misrepresentations in the undertakings executed by him/her while complying with the pre-clearance procedure shall be subjected to the penalties as envisaged in these Rules.
- vii. Nothing in this rule shall apply to any Trade involving a value less than Rs 5 Lakhs or such other amount as may be specified by the Board of Directors from time to time (a "de minimis Trade") provided the Designated Person is not in possession of UPSI while executing the de minimis Trade.

7. Additional trading restrictions on Designated Persons

- i. No Director or Key Managerial Personnel shall enter into derivative transactions in respect of the securities of the Company.
- ii. All Designated Persons who Trade in the securities of the company shall not enter into an opposite transaction during the next six months following the prior transaction. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI.
- iii. The Compliance officer may relax the above restrictions subject to the adherence to the Regulations.

8. Trading Plan

- i. A Designated Person shall be entitled to formulate a Trading Plan that complies with the SEBI Regulations (a "Trading Plan") and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which Trades may be carried out in his behalf in accordance with such plan.

- ii. The Compliance Officer shall review and approve the Trading Plan if it complies with the SEBI Regulations and shall disclose the Trading Plan to the stock exchanges.
- iii. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Designated Person shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the Trading Plan. However, the implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Designated Person is in possession of UPSI and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Trading Plan shall be deferred until such UPSI becomes generally available information. Further, the Designated Person shall also not be allowed to Trade in securities of the Company, if the date of Trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.
- iv. The trading plan of the Compliance officer, if any, shall be reviewed by an Independent Director having financial literacy.
- v. The trading plan shall not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan.

9. Penalty for Insider Trading

- i. An Insider who acts in contravention of these Rules shall be liable to have his services or relationship with the Company, as the case may be, terminated.
- ii. Directors, Officers and employees of the Company who violate these rules shall be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, and ineligibility for future participation in the Company's stock option plans or termination.
- iii. The SEBI or any other appropriate regulatory authority would also be informed of the violation of these Rules so that appropriate action may be taken.
