

For Immediate Release

Financial Technologies (Standalone) Total Income for the quarter ended June 30, 2012, increased by 68% to Rs. 146.86 crore year-on-year

EBIDTA (Standalone) for the quarter ended June 30, 2012, increased by 109% to Rs. 102.64 crore year-on-year

Net Profit (Standalone) for quarter ended June 30, 2012, increased by 94% to Rs. 76.06 crore year-on-year

Declares interim dividend of 100% on the face value of Rs. 2/- per share

Mumbai, August 6, 2012:

Financial Technologies (India) Limited (Financial Technologies), the global leader in offering technology solutions and domain expertise for creating and operating financial markets for multi asset class, announced today its unaudited Standalone financial results for the quarter ended June 30, 2012

- Total Income increased by 68% to Rs. 146.86 crore compared to same quarter last year
- EBIDTA increased by 109% to Rs. 102.64 crore compared to same quarter last year
- Net Profit increased by 94% to Rs. 76.06 crore compared to same quarter last year
- The board declared interim dividend of 100% on the face value of Rs. 2/- per share

Commenting on Financial Technologies' first quarter FY 2012-13 performance, Mr. Dewang Neralla, Whole-time Director, said:

"This quarter has seen a considerable growth for Financial Technologies. We booked Total income of Rs. 146.86 crore an increase of 68% growth year-on-year and the Net Profit of Rs. 76.06 crore for the quarter ended June 30, 2012 an increase of 94% year-on-year.

During this quarter our international exchanges stepped up to next level; BFX which commenced trading in November 2011, recorded an average daily turnover of USD 89.7 mn for quarter ended June 30, 2012. DGCX recorded an average daily turnover of USD 1.4 bn for quarter ending June 30, 2012 an increase of 144% over same quarter last year.

MCX, a group company of Financial Technologies, world's 3rd largest commodity derivatives exchange continues to lead the commodity markets in India with 87% of the market share. The average daily turnover grew 8% over same quarter last year. IEX leads the electricity markets with dominant share of 95% in Day ahead trading and 92% in Renewable Energy certificates trading for quarter ended June 30, 2012.

About Financial Technologies (India) Ltd. (www.ftindia.com)

(NSE: FINANTECH, BSE: FINTECH, Bloomberg: FTECH:IN)

Financial Technologies (India) Ltd. is a Rs. 3402.4 crore (market capitalization as on June 30, 2012) company, part of Financial Technologies Group (FT Group); is among the global leaders in offering technology IP (Intellectual Property) and domain expertise to create and trade on next generation financial markets, that are transparent, efficient and liquid, across all asset classes including - equities, commodities, currencies and bonds among others.

The FT Group operates one of the world's largest network of nine exchanges connecting fast-growing economies of Africa, Middle East, India and South East Asia. The Group also has five ecosystem ventures to address upstream and downstream opportunities around exchanges, including clearing, depository, information vending, payment gateway, among others.

The business of creating and operating new generation tech-centric financial markets allows us to build unprecedented shareholder value through a non-linear business model and also help democratize global trade, transform economies, and empower the common man, unlocking value from the middle and bottom of the socio-economic pyramid.

Refer to our website www.ftindia.com/investors/quarterlyearningrelease.htm for the latest Investor Communiqué.

For further information, contact:

Devendra Agrawal
Chief Financial Officer
Financial Technologies (India) Limited
T: +91-22-6686 8010
devendra.agrawal@ftindia.com

Safe Harbour Statement

Certain statements made in this release with reference to future operations and performance of Financial Technologies, its subsidiaries, and other group companies are forward-looking statements, involving risks and uncertainties. Certain factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in such forward-looking statements. The company does not undertake responsibility to update any forward-looking statement that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of the company.