HCL AXON Certified in SAP® Value Management

HCL AXON Accelerates Value and Benefit Realization for Customers Using SAP Solutions

Jersey City, NJ – May 17 , 2010 – HCL AXON, a division of HCL Technologies and a provider of business transformation consulting services through the innovative implementation and support of SAP® applications, announced today that it has successfully completed the SAP® Education training and certification in the SAP Value Management methodology.

As one of the first SAP partners to be certified in Value Management through the SAP Education organization, HCL AXON will have additional resources to help it support customers in accelerating value and optimizing benefit realization from their investments in SAP solutions, including usage and application of SAP's methodologies, tools and resources. These resources include access to SAP's high impact strategies benchmarking, business case development tools, and a broad array of value realization and value optimization assets to supplement core competencies. HCL AXON will optimize the value delivered to customers through the utilization of its Benefits Realization Drive Business Transformation methodology, based on SAP's Value Management tools.

Certification in the SAP Value Management curricula has been granted to HCL AXON for its proficiency in the following:

- SAP's Value Lifecycle Management approach and methodologies
- SAP's High Impact Strategy Benchmarking and performance improvement programs
- SAP's comprehensive set of Value Management content and tools for business justification and benefits tracking

"HCL Axon has been instrumental in cooperating with SAP on the development of Value Management practices around implementation and benefit realization," said Jack Childs, senior vice president, Global Value Management, SAP. "Their best practices in these areas are leading-edge and have helped our joint customers realize more value from their investments."

"We are pleased to further strengthen our relationship with SAP by gaining this certification in the SAP Value Management methodology," said Robert MacDougall, global head of Benefits Realization at HCL AXON. "Benefits-led business transformation is at the heart of HCL AXON's go-to-market proposition, and this new training and education certification will help accelerate our ability to deliver the full range of Value Lifecycle Management activities alongside our market-leading Benefits Realization services. Through certification in the Value Management methodology, we can help our clients better understand how they are performing versus their peers and work more closely with our clients to help them improve their business performance.
